2023 ATHLETICS

MARK KOTSAY 7

MANAGER

Mark Steven Kotsay

Named A's manager, December 21, 2021

Birthdate: December 2, 1975

Birthplace/Resides: Whittier, California / Rancho Sante Fe, California

Contract Status: Signed through 2024 with a club option for 2025

Mark Kotsay begins his second season as manager of the Oakland A's in 2023 after signing a three-year contract through the 2024 season with a club option for 2025 on Dec. 21, 2021. He becomes just the sixth person to manager the A's over the last 36 years, joining Tony La Russa (1986-95), Art Howe (1996-2002), Ken Macha (2003-06), Bob Geren (2007-11) and Bob Melvin (2011-21). Kotsay is the 19th manager in Oakland history and the 31st in Athletics history.

Kotsay's first season at the helm saw the A's use a franchise-record 64 players, more than half of which (34) were rookies. More than one-third of the players (22) made their Major League debuts in 2022, and Oakland finished with a 60-102 record.

Prior to being named Manager, Kotsay spent six seasons on the A's coaching staff. He joined the club as bench coach in 2016 and filled that role until taking a leave of absence June 19, 2017. Kotsay served as the A's quality control coach from 2018-20 and moved into the third base coaching box for the 2021 season. He made his professional coaching debut as the San Diego Padres hitting coach in 2015. Kotsay joins Jeff Newman, who was interim manager in 1986 between Jackie Moore and Tony La Russa, as the only managers in Oakland history with no previous managerial experience.

Kotsay played 17 seasons in the Major Leagues from 1997-2013, including a four-year stint with Oakland from 2004-07. He was acquired from San Diego following the 2003 season for Ramon Hernandez and Terrence Long and went on to hit .282 in 472 games with the A's. Kotsay batted a career-high .313 in 2004 and tallied a career-high 82 RBI in 2005 while belting 15 home runs in each season. He was a member of the A's American League West champions in 2006 and sparked Oakland to its first ALCS appearance in 14 years with an inside-the-park home run in Game 2 of the ALDS at Minnesota. Kotsay joins La Russa and Newman as the only people to both play for and manage the Oakland A's.

A former outfielder, Kotsay batted .276 with 127 home runs and 720 RBI in 1,914 games during his career, which also included stops in Florida (1997-2000), San Diego (2001-03, 12-13), Atlanta (2008), Boston (2008-09), Chicago-AL (2009-10) and Milwaukee (2011). He made his ML debut with Florida in his second professional season in 1997 and appeared in a career-high 154 games in his rookie season of 1998. After batting .298 in 2000, he was traded to San Diego five days prior to Opening Day in 2001. He hit .292 with a career-high 17 home runs in 2002. Following his stay with Oakland, Kotsay returned to the LCS in 2008 with Boston and 2011 with Milwaukee. He concluded his playing career with San Diego in 2012 and 2013.

Kotsay retired following the 2013 season and spent 2014 in the Padres front office as a special assistant to the general manager and baseball operations. In that role, he was involved in all aspects of the club's baseball operations.

A graduate of Sante Fe (Calif.) High School, Kotsay attended Cal State Fullerton, where he led the Titans to the College World Series Championship in 1995. He was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award, was named Collegiate Player of the Year that year and hit .404 in his collegiate career. Kotsay was the Marlins first-round pick and the ninth selection overall in the 1996 draft and also played for the United States in the 1996 Olympics.

Kotsay is married, Jamie, and has three children, Grace, Sienna and Trey. He resides in Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., during the offseason.

MIKE ALDRETE 18

FIRST BASE COACH
Michael Peter Aldrete
Named bench coach, October 27, 2014; named first base coach, November 12, 2015; named assistant hitting coach, December 4, 2017; named first base coach, October 31, 2019; named quality control coach, January 14, 2022; named first base coach, November 28, 2022
Birthdate: January 29, 1961
Birthplace/Resides: Carmel, California / Salinas, California

Mike Aldrete returns for his ninth season on the A's coaching staff, his fifth as first base coach. He originally joined the A's as bench coach in 2015, spent two seasons as the A's first base and outfield coach from 2016-17, was assistant hitting coach in 2018-19, first base coach from 2020-21 and quality control coach in 2022. The 2023 season will mark his 19th on a Major League coaching staff.

He began his coaching career in 2001 as hitting coach for Short Season Yakima in the Diamondbacks minor league system. He was promoted to manager of Yakima the following season and then managed Arizona's High Single-A club in Lancaster in 2003. His first coaching opportunity in the majors came in 2004 when he was named first base coach on Bob Melvin's staff in Seattle. He moved to Arizona the following year when Melvin was named manager of the Diamondbacks, serving as hitting coach there for two seasons.

Tony La Russa, whom Aldrete had played for in Oakland, hired him as assistant hitting coach with St. Louis in 2008. After four seasons in that position, including with the 2011 Cardinals team that was crowned World Series champions, he was promoted to bench coach in 2012, when Mike Matheny replaced the retiring La Russa as manager. During his three-year stint as bench coach, the Cardinals advanced to the World Series in 2013 and to the National League Championship Series in both 2012 and 2014.

Born in Carmel, Calif., and a graduate of Monterey High School and Stanford University, the former first baseman/outfielder played for seven different teams during his 10-year Major League career, including both the San Francisco Giants (1986-88) and the Oakland A's (1993-95). A .263 lifetime hitter in 930 games, Aldrete also played for Montreal (1989-90), San Diego (1991), Cleveland (1991), the California Angels (1995-96) and the New York Yankees (1996).

Aldrete's finest season as a player was with the Giants in 1987, when he batted a career-high .325 on a team that lost to St. Louis in the National League Championship Series. He split his final season between California and New York in 1996, ending his career as a member of the World Series Champion Yankees.

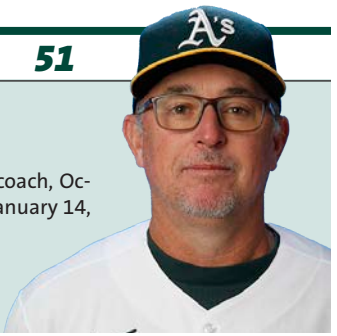

A third-team All-American his senior season at Stanford, Aldrete was chosen by San Francisco in the seventh round of the June Draft in 1983. He enjoyed a pair of trips to the College World Series with the Cardinal and was a member of the U.S. Collegiate All-Star team that toured Japan in 1982. Aldrete graduated from Monterey (Calif.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football.

Aldrete makes his offseason home in Salinas, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and their three children; Michael, Blake and Nicolette. Michael (RHP) was selected by the Cardinals in the 2012 First Year Player Draft out of San Jose State (39th round).

Bush compiled a 462-386 (.545) record in six seasons as a manager with Single-A Stockton (2007-08), Double-A Midland (2009-10) and Triple-A Sacramento (2011-12). He guided the River Cats to back-to-back division titles with a mark of 88-56 in 2011 and 86-58 in 2012. Bush also led the RockHounds to playoff appearances in 2009 and 2010, including a Texas League Championship in 2009. He skippered Single-A Stockton to the California League Championship in his second year as a manager in 2008. Bush joined the Athletics in 2005 as hitting coach at Stockton and spent two seasons in that capacity before taking over as manager for the Ports in 2007.

Prior to joining the A's organization, Bush coached in independent leagues. He was the hitting coach and Director of Player Personnel with Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002 and then spent two seasons as a manager in the Northeast League with Berkshire (41-51 in 2003) and Quebec (58-34 in 2004).

A former outfielder, Bush began his playing career with three seasons in the independent Frontier League. He played for Zanesville in 1996 and Springfield in 1997-98, hitting .302 with 26 home runs and 133 RBI in 224 games. Bush signed with the San Diego Padres organization Dec. 24, 1998, and hit .259 with 16 home runs and 114 RBI in 231 games in two seasons at Single-A Rancho Cucamonga (1999-2000) and one year at Single-A Clearwater (2001) in the Phillies farm system. He also played one game for Triple-A Las Vegas in 2000 and went 2-for-4. He concluded his playing career by hitting .417 in seven games for Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002. Bush had a .284 average in 456 games overall.

Bush attended Dunedin High School and Valdosta State University. He resides in Englewood, Fla., during the offseason. Bush is married, Rebecca, and has two children, Wyatt and Maggie.

CHRIS CRON 41

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Christopher John Cron

Named assistant hitting coach, January 14, 2022

Birthdate: March 31, 1964

Birthplace/Resides: Albuquerque, New Mexico / Ahwatukee, Arizona

Chris Cron returns for his second season as the A's assistant hitting coach, his first Major League coaching assignment after 27 seasons in the minors as a manager, hitting coordinator and field coordinator in the Chicago White Sox, Colorado Rockies, Detroit Tigers and Arizona Diamondbacks organizations.

Cron comes to the A's from Arizona where he served as minor league field coordinator in 2021. He joined the Diamondbacks in 2014 as minor league hitting coordinator and spent five seasons in that role before being named manager of Triple-A Reno in 2019. He guided the Aces to a 66-74 record that year and was slated to return as manager in 2020 before the minor league season was canceled due to the pandemic.

Cron is a two-time Manager of the Year, earning the honors with Single-A Winston-Salem in the Carolina League in 1998 and Rookie Great Falls in the Pioneer League in 2010. He guided his clubs to eight playoff appearances (1997-98, 2005, 07-10, 13), including a Pioneer League Championship in 2007.

Cron began his minor league managerial career in 1995 at Rookie Bristol in the Chicago White Sox organization and also had stops at Single-A Hickory (1996-97) and Winston-Salem (1998) and Double-A Birmingham (1999). He spent the three seasons as manager at Triple-A Colorado Springs from 2000-02 in the Rockies organization before returning to the White Sox in 2003. Cron spent one year each at Rookie Great Falls (2004), Single-A Kannapolis (2005),

Winston-Salem (2006) and Birmingham before concluding his White Sox career with four years at Great Falls from 2007-10. He then managed for three seasons at Double-A Erie in the Detroit system from 2011-13 before moving on to the Diamondbacks.

Cron played professionally for 12 seasons, including 12 games in the majors with California (1991) and Chicago-AL (1992). He went 2-for-15 (.133) in six games with the Angels in his debut and was 0-for-10 in six games with the White Sox in 1992. Cron was a .268 hitter with 172 home runs and 785 RBI in 1,250 games as a minor leaguer in the Atlanta, California, Chicago (AL) and Cleveland organizations. He was originally selected by the Braves in the second round of the 1984 draft out of Santa Ana (Calif.) College and is a graduate of El Dorado (Calif.) High School.

Cron resides in Phoenix, Ariz., and has three children: C.J., Kevin and Carly. C.J. was the Angels first round pick in 2011 and made his Major League debut in 2014. Kevin was the Diamondbacks 14th round selection in 2014 and made his ML debut in 2019. Carly graduated from Northern Arizona University in 2020 and completed her Masters degree from Arizona State in 2021.

SCOTT EMERSON 14

PITCHING COACH

Scott Matthew Emerson

Named bullpen coach, October 30, 2014; named pitching coach, June 15, 2017

Birthdate: December 22, 1971

Birthplace/Resides: Baltimore, Maryland / Rockingham, North Carolina

Scott Emerson returns for his ninth season on the A's Major League coaching staff and his 20th in the A's organization. He joined the coaching staff in Oakland for the 2015 season as bullpen coach and took over the reins as pitching coach on June 15, 2017.

Emerson spent two seasons as minor league roving pitching instructor from 2013-14 after 10 years as a pitching coach at various levels. He joined the A's organization in 2003 as pitching coach at Single-A Modesto and served two seasons there before the A's moved their affiliate to Stockton. After two seasons with the Ports, Emerson had a four-year stint at Double-A Midland from 2007-10. He was promoted to Triple-A Sacramento in 2011 and spent two seasons with the River Cats.

Emerson's coaching career began in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in 2000 when he was named the pitching coach for the Pirates Gulf Coast Rookie League club at Bradenton. He spent two years in the GCL and one at Single-A Williamsport in 2002 before joining the A's organization.

Emerson pitched professionally for six seasons in the Baltimore (1992-95), Boston (1995-96) and Arizona (1997) organizations. He was a 10-game winner at Single-A Albany in 1993 and was traded to the Red Sox organization early during the 1995 season. The left-hander signed with Arizona after being released by Boston in the spring of 1997. He pitched in three games for Single-A High Desert before concluding his professional career with Rio Grande Valley of the independent Texas-Louisiana League in 1997. Emerson was 27-29 with a 4.16 ERA in 135 games, 79 starts in his career.

Emerson was drafted by San Diego in the 21st round of the 1990 June draft out of Shadow Mountain (Phoenix, Ariz.) HS but did not sign. He attended Scottsdale Community College and signed with the Baltimore organization after the Orioles selected him in the 40th round of the 1991 June draft.

Emerson and his wife, Jill, make their offseason home in Rockingham, N.C.

TOMMY EVERIDGE 52

HITTING COACH

Thomas James Everidge

Named hitting coach, January 14, 2022

Birthdate: April 20, 1983

Birthplace/Resides: Santa Rosa, California / Mesa, Arizona

Bay Area native Tommy Everidge returns for his second consecutive season as the A's hitting coach after spending eight seasons in that role in the A's farm system. This will be his 17th season in the Oakland organization, as he also had seven years as a player.

Everidge began his coaching career in 2014 when he was named hitting coach at Short-Season Vermont. He spent two seasons with the Lake Monsters and two more at Single-A Stockton from 2016-17 before being moved up to Double-A Midland. Everidge had three seasons with the RockHounds before coaching at Triple-A Las Vegas in 2021.

Everidge had a nine-year playing career, including seven years in the A's system. He made his Major League debut in 2009 and hit .224 with two home runs and seven RBI in 24 games with Oakland in his only big league experience. Everidge was selected by the A's in the 10th round of the 2004 draft and spent seven seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland (2004-10), Seattle (2010) and Houston (2010). He hit 20 home runs in four consecutive seasons from 2006-09 and led the California League with 26 home runs at Stockton in 2007. In 2008, he led the Texas League and ranked third in all of the minors league with 115 RBI at Midland. Everidge concluded his playing career with two seasons at Lancaster in the independent Atlantic League from 2011-12, earning AL Player of the Year honors in 2011 after setting a league record with 69 extra-base hits.

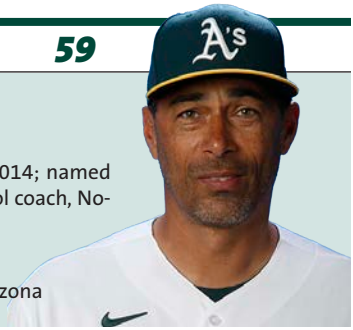

A graduate of Sonoma Valley High School in 2001, Everidge played collegiately at Sonoma State University.

Everidge resides in Mesa, Ariz., with his wife Kellie; three children, Allison, Camden and Jackson; and dog, Rylie.

Birthdate: December 14, 1972

Birthplace/Resides: Oakland, California / Scottsdale, Arizona

Oakland native Marcus Jensen returns for his ninth season on the A's Major League coaching staff and his 17th in the A's organization. The 2023 season marks his first as quality control coach after spending the previous five years as bullpen coach. Jensen served as as the A's assistant hitting/catching coach from 2015-17.

Jensen joined the A's organization in 2007 as hitting coach for the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League and served two years in that capacity. He took over the managerial duties for that club in 2009 and guided the A's to a 141-136 (.509) record and one playoff appearance in five seasons. In 2013, he also served as the A's minor league roving catching instructor and then spent the 2014 season as the A's minor league roving hitting instructor.

A former catcher, Jensen was drafted by San Francisco out of Skyline HS in Oakland following the first round of the 1990 June draft as a compensation pick for the loss of free agent

ERIC MARTINS 3

THIRD BASE COACH

Anthony Eric Martins

Named assistant hitting coach, October 31, 2019; named first base/infield coach, January 14, 2022; named third base coach, November 28, 2022

Birthdate: November 19, 1972

Birthplace/Resides: Los Angeles, California / Mesa, Arizona

Eric Martins is in his fourth season on the A's coaching staff, his first as third base coach. He made his debut on a Major League coaching staff in 2020 as the A's assistant hitting coach and spent two seasons in that capacity before serving as first base/infield coach in 2022. This is Martins' 23rd season in the A's organization, which includes seven years as a minor league player, seven years as an area scout and five years as a minor league hitting coach.

Martins' coaching career began in 2015 when he was named hitting coach for Double-A Midland. He was promoted to Triple-A Nashville in 2016 and spent three seasons with the Sounds before moving west to Las Vegas in 2019 when the A's switched Triple-A affiliates.

Prior to coaching, Martins spent seven seasons as an A's area scout for Southern California from 2008-14. During that time, he was responsible for signing A.J. Griffin, Daniel Robertson, and 2014 first-round selection Matt Chapman, among others.

Originally a 17th-round selection by Oakland in the 1994 draft, Martins hit .276 with 21 home runs and 262 RBI in 661 games over seven seasons in the A's farm system from 1994-2000. He was named to the Northwest League All-Star team in 1994 after hitting .324 in his professional debut. The former infielder was part of the 1997 Edmonton team that captured the Pacific Coast League Championship and the 1999 Vancouver club that won the Triple-A World Series. Martins also played for Long Beach of the independent Western League (2001-02), Somerset of the independent Atlantic League (2003) and Nettuno in Italy (2004).

A graduate of La Serna High School in 1990, Martins attended Long Beach State. He was signed by Ed Crosby.

Martins lives in Mesa, Ariz., with his wife, Madison.

MIKE MCCARTHY 71

BULLPEN COACH

Michael McCarthy

Named bullpen coach, November 28, 2022

Birthdate: November 18, 1987

Birthplace/Resides: Walnut Creek, California / Reno, Nevada

Mike McCarthy is on his first Major League coaching staff at the age of 35 after being named A's bullpen coach on Nov. 28, 2022.

McCarthy comes to the A's with five years of experience as a minor league coach, most recently as pitching coaching at Triple-A El Paso in the San Diego Padres organization in 2022. He began his coaching career as the bullpen coach at Triple-A Rochester in the Minnesota Twins organization in 2018 and served two seasons in that capacity before being named pitching coach for Rochester prior to the canceled 2020 minor league season. McCarthy remained as pitching coach when the Twins Triple-A affiliate moved to St. Paul in 2021.

Originally selected by Boston in the 14th round of the 2011 draft, McCarthy compiled a 28-27 record, eight saves and a 4.57 ERA in 150 games, including 61 starts, in six professional seasons, all in the Red Sox farm system. He won a career-high 10 games for Double-A Portland in 2014 and reached the Triple-A level in each of his final three seasons, pitching in one game for Pawtucket in 2014, 15 and 16. McCarthy also helped Perth to the Australian Baseball League Championship following the 2014 season.

McCarthy graduated from Liberty HS in Brentwood, Calif., and attended the University of Redlands and Cal State Bakersfield. He was instrumental in building CSUB's baseball team from the ground up and earned College Baseball Insider Honorable Mention All-America accolades in 2011. McCarthy received an Association of Professional Ball Players of America scholarship and earned an MBA with a concentration in Global Management from the University of Phoenix.

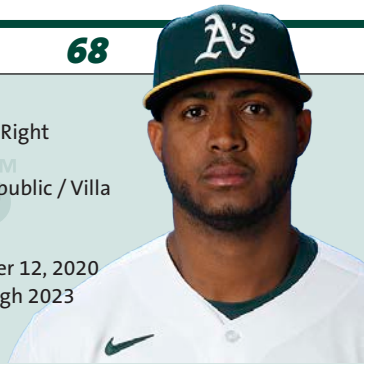

McCarthy also served as field coordinator for Baseball Miracles, an international organization that teaches baseball and softball to kids experiencing economic and environmental disadvantages. He has taught baseball in 10 countries on six continents and has traveled to all 50 states.

McCarthy was born in Walnut Creek, grew up in Antioch and Brentwood, and now resides in Reno, Nev., during the offseason.

NON-ROSTER INVITEE

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Made his Major League debut with Oakland in 2022 and was 0-1 with a 7.11 ERA in 14 relief appearances...was originally signed by the A's as a non-drafted free agent Dec. 22, 2016 after going 24-17 with a 2.55 ERA in 60 games, including 55 starts, in three seasons in Cuba's Serie Nacional...is 20-18 with a 5.07 ERA in 114 games, including 36 starts, in five seasons in the A's farm system.

2022 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his Major League debut in 2022 and was 0-1 with a 7.11 ERA and .981 opponents OPS in 14 relief appearances over two stints with the A's...also compiled a 5-1 record, two saves, a 3.73 ERA and .695 OPS in 31 games with Triple-A Las Vegas.
- Allowed a .361 opponents batting average with the A's, which broke down to .306 (15-for-49) with all four of his home runs and a 1.012 OPS against right-handed hitters compared to .441 (15-for-34) with a .941 OPS against left-handed hitters.
- Had a .412 batting average with the bases empty, .327 with runners on.
- Allowed 2-of-8 (25.0%) inherited runners to score and first batters faced were 6-for-14 (.429).
- Opponents hit .314 with two strikes.
- Held opponents to a .229 average with Las Vegas, which included .190 (12-for-63) with a .540 opponents OPS against left-handed hitters and .255 (24-for-94) with a .797 OPS against right-handers...surrendered four of his five home runs to righties.
- Yielded a .200 batting average with runners in scoring position.
- Allowed 7-of-14 (50.0%) inherited runners to score but first batters faced were 5-for-29 (.172) with two walks (.226 on-base percentage).
- His ERA increased in each of the first four months of the season as he logged a 1.42 ERA in April, 3.86 in May, 5.00 in June and 7.45 in July...then did not allow a run in 9.0 innings in August.
- Compiled a 7.31 ERA in 12 games on one or two days of rest, a 1.52 ERA in 18 outings on three days rest or more.
- Tossed at least one inning in 30 of his 31 appearances, including a season-high 2.0 innings eight times.
- DAY-BY-DAY: Won each of his first four decisions with Las Vegas and was 4-0 with a 2.61 ERA and .189 opponents batting average over his first 17 games through June 22...however, walked 12 batters in 20.2 innings over that span for a .302 opponents on-base percentage...struck out a season-high three May 27 at Tacoma (also July 15 vs. Salt Lake)...issued a season-high three walks June 5 against Sacramento...made his 100th career minor league appearance on June 22 against Albuquerque (1.0 ip, 1 bb, 1 so)...allowed a season-high four runs on a season-high four hits in 1.2 innings on June 25 against Albuquerque...that began a stretch from June 25 to July 29 where he yielded at least one run in six of his eight appearances...had an 8.74 ERA and .327 opponents batting average over that span...also surrendered all five of his home runs as a minor leaguer during that stretch...did not allow a run over his first five appearances in August (8.0 ip, 5 h, 1 bb, 7 so) and had a 3.83 ERA in 30 games overall when he was selected by Oakland on Aug. 19...made his ML debut that day against Seattle and allowed four runs on seven hits in 1.2 innings (0 bb, 2 so)...the seven hits matched the most in Oakland history by a reliever in his debut (Ernie Camacho, May 22, 1980 at Kansas City) and the four runs fell one short of the high of five (Jeff Kaiser, April 11, 1985 at Seattle)...struck out Eugenio Suarez to end the seventh inning for his first strikeout...tossed 2.0 scoreless innings on Aug. 22 against Miami but then allowed three runs on six hits in 2.1 innings on Aug. 25 against New York, giving him a 10.50 ERA over his first three games...struck out a career-high four against the Yankees but was optioned to Las Vegas following the game...made one appearance on Aug. 28 against Sugarland (1.0 ip, 1 bb, 1 so) before he was recalled by Oakland on Aug. 30...spent the remainder of the season with the A's and posted a 5.54 ERA over his final 11 appearances...was tagged with the blown save and loss on Sept. 1 at Washington when he allowed a career-high tying four runs in 0.2 innings...did not allow a run over his next five contests from Sept. 2-18 (7.1 ip, 3 h, 1 bb, 5 so), including Sept. 7 against Atlanta when he tossed a career-high 2.2 scoreless innings...then yielded at least one run in four of his final five appearances (9.00 ERA).

RELIEF PITCHERS SAVE RULE

A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with the potential tying run on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A designated hitter must be selected prior to the game and must be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief. The DH must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing Club changes pitchers. The DH is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the DH. The DH may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player. The DH role is terminated if a pitcher switches from the mound to a postion on defense, a pinch hitter enters the game to pitch, the pitcher bats or runs for the DH, the DH assumes a postion on defense or a player on defense enters the game to pitch. A player listed on the lineup card as both a starting pitcher and DH can continue to bat if he is replaced as the pitcher or continue to pitch if he is replaced as the DH.

ATHLETICS BIGGEST COMEBACK

On July 20, 2009, the A's set an Oakland record by overcoming a 10-run deficit to win. Trailing Minnesota 12-2 entering the bottom of the third inning, the A's scored three times in the third, twice in the fourth and seven times in the seventh to win 14-13. The all-time Athletics record is also the Major League record, set by the Philadelphia A's on June 15, 1925 against Cleveland. The A's trailed by 12 runs in that game and scored 13 times in the bottom of the eighth to win 17-15.

HISTORY

ATHLETICS HISTORY

From its beginnings in Philadelphia to its current version in Oakland, the Athletics franchise has been one of the most storied in Major League history. The A's have won nine World Championships, 15 Pennants and 17 Division Titles in 122 years in the American League. Only the New York Yankees (27) and St. Louis Cardinals (11) have won more World Series and only the Yankees (40) have more American League Pennants.

The A's were one of the eight original AL franchises when the league was born in 1901. Connie Mack was named manager of the Philadelphia entry and would guide the A's for 50 years, winning five World Championships and 3,582 games. The Hall of Famer was also an owner of the club for all 54 years in Philadelphia.

Under Mack's leadership, the A's would win six of the first 14 AL Pennants, including World Series titles in 1910, 11 and 13. The first dynasty featured the "$100,000 infield" of Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry and Frank "Home Run" Baker as well as Hall of Fame pitchers Chief Bender, Eddie Plank and Rube Waddell. Waddell led the AL in strikeouts each year from 1902-07 and Baker earned the "Home Run" nickname by topping the AL in round trippers from 1911-14, with 11, 10, 12 and nine.

The A's won 99 games in 1914 but dropped off to 43 wins in 1915 as the club sold off many of its star players, a pattern that would continue throughout the history of the franchise. The A's had seven straight last place finishes through 1921, but a second dynasty was on the horizon.

Mack again began to assemble Hall of Fame talent in the mid-20's, putting together one of the most feared batting orders in baseball history with catcher Mickey Cochrane, first baseman Jimmie Foxx and outfielder Al Simmons. Add in another Hall of Famer on the mound in Lefty Grove and the A's would win 100 games in three straight seasons, including back-to-back World Championships in 1929 and 30.

The A's won their ninth AL Pennant with a 107-win season in 1931 as Grove won AL Most Valuable Player honors. Foxx won back-to-back MVPs in 1932 and 1933, setting franchise records for home runs (58) and RBI (169) in 1932. However, economics again led Mack to sell or trade his best players. The club would post 13 consecutive losing seasons from 1934-46 and would finish no higher than fourth place in the final 21 years in Philadelphia.

Connie Mack managed his final season in 1950 at the age of age of 87 and the Mack family sold the club to Arnold Johnson, who moved the A's to Kansas City in 1955.

The A's finished in sixth place in their first season in Kansas City, but that would be their highest finish in the midwest, which featured 13 losing seasons. The club again began to develop talent, but most, including the likes of Roger Maris and 1952 AL MVP Bobby Shantz, would end up being traded to the Yankees. Following the death of Johnson in 1960, the A's were sold to Charlie Finley.

Finley began assembling another talented group of A's players, signing Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Rollie Fingers, Bert Campaneris and Joe Rudi and drafting Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando and Vida Blue. While most of these players had limited time with the Kansas City A's, they would form the nucleus of the next A's dynasty.

The A's moved to Oakland in 1968 and won 82 games that year for their first winning season in 16 years. After back-to-back second place finishes in 1969 and '70, the A's won five straight American League West titles from 1971-75. Anchored by Hall of Famers Hunter, Fingers and Jackson, the A's won three straight World Championships from 1972-74.

Although the A's won 98 games in 1975, the third Athletics dynasty was already coming to an end with the departure of Hunter via free agency prior to the season. The rest of the players would be traded in the next two years and the A's reached a low in Oakland with a 108-loss season in 1979. However, that year saw the debut of the next A's superstar, Rickey Henderson.

Billy Martin was hired to manage the A's in 1980 and Henderson flourished under Martin, stealing 100 bases that year and a record 130 in 1982. Finley sold the A's to Haas Family following the 1980 season and BillyBall, featuring Henderson on the bases and starting pitchers going the distance, was born. The A's won the West in the strike-shortened 1981 season but would face a seven-year drought before returning to the postseason.

The turnaround began in 1986 with the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the signing of Dave Stewart as a free agent. A trade for future Hall of Famer Dennis Eckersley in 1987 led the to the emergence of the modern day closer, and three straight rookies of the year in Jose Canseco (1986), Mark McGwire (1987) and Walt Weiss (1988) gave the A's the ingredients for a run of four AL West Championships in five years from 1988-92.

Oakland made three straight World Series appearances from 1988-90, including a sweep of the cross-bay rival San Francisco Giants in 1989 that was buoyed by the return of Henderson to Oakland. Two years later on May 1, 1991, Henderson would break Lou Brock's Major League stolen base record with his 939th steal.

The A's had MVPs in 1988 (Canseco), 1990 (Henderson) and 1992 (Eckersley) and Cy Youngs in Bob Welch (1990) and Eckersley (1992), but this time it was age that ended the A's run.

The Moneyball teams of the early 2000's featuring the Big Three of Tim Hudson, Mark Mulder and 2002 Cy Young winner Barry Zito, and the offensive power of 2000 MVP Jason Giambi, 2002 MVP Miguel Tejada and Gold Glover Eric Chavez, made four straight postseason appearances from 2000-03 and another in 2006. The 2002 club set a then-AL record with a 20-game winning streak, capped off by a Scott Hatteberg pinch hit home run.

Bob Melvin was hired as manager in 2011 and under his guidance, the A's made six postseason appearances over a nine-year span from 2012-20. The run began with two AL West titles and a Wild Card from 2012-14 and two Wild Cards and an AL West title from 2018-20. In between, the A's completely rebuilt, with only Brett Anderson and Jed Lowrie playing in each three-year stretch.

 The Baseball Writers' Association of America has officially balloted and named the MVP in each major league since 1931. The earlier awards were known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928.*

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Athletics Hall of Fame was founded in 2018 to honor the individuals who have shaped the identity and success of the Athletics franchise.

The inaugural class of seven featured the five Oakland A's National Baseball Hall of Famers: Catfish Hunter, Rollie Fingers, Reggie Jackson, Dennis Eckersley and Rickey Henderson, as well as four-time 20-game winner Dave Stewart and owner Charlie Finley.

The first induction ceremony took place on Sept. 5, 2018. With five additions in 2023, the Athletics Hall of Fame now features 33 members.

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAMERS

Frank "Home Run" Baker
Philadelphia A's 1908-14
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Frank "Home Run" Baker led the American League in home runs from 1911-13 and tied for the lead in 1914, but earned his nickname by hitting two home runs in the 1911 World Series against the Giants, the second of three World Champion A's teams that featured Baker as the A's third baseman. A member of the A's famed $100,000 infield, Baker led the league in triples in his rookie season of 1909 and topped the AL in RBI from 1912-13.

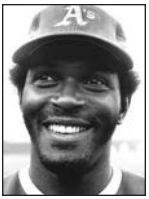

Sal Bando
Kansas City A's 1966-67;
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

"Captain Sal" was the leader that held the A's together in the early 70's when Oakland won five straight American League West titles and three consecutive World Series. Bando finished in the top four in Most Valuable Player voting three times and was a four-time All-Star. His durability put him atop the AL leader board in games played four times and although he never led the league in any other major category, his 33.0 WAR from 1969-73 was the best in baseball.

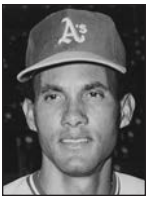

Charles "Chief" Bender
Philadelphia A's 1903-14
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Charles "Chief" Bender was a Native American who pitched in five World Series for the A's. He had his finest season in 1910 when he authored a no-hitter while compiling a 23-5 record and a 1.58 ERA before helping the A's to their first World Championship. Bender, who was Connie Mack's choice "if there was one game I wanted to win above all others" won five of his seven World Series starts in 1910, 11 and 13 to lead the A's to their first three World Championships.

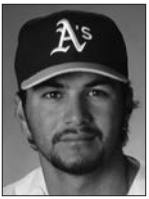

Vida Blue
Oakland A's 1969-77
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Vida Blue made his Major League debut in 1969 eight days before his 20th birthday, tossed a no-hitter in 1970, and then burst onto the national scene in 1971 when he won both the American League Cy Young Award and Most Valuable Player Award after compiling a 24-8 record, a league-leading 1.82 ERA and 301 strikeouts. Blue started two All-Star Games for the AL in 1971 and 1975, and in between pitched for the A's three consecutive World Champions.

Bert Campaneris
Kansas City A's 1964-67;
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

When you trace the roots of the A's three straight World Championships from 1972 to 1974, it all began on April 25, 1961, when the Kansas City A's signed a 19-year-old Cuban named Dagoberto Campaneris. "Campy" played 13 seasons for the A's and was a six-time All-Star. He stole 649 bases in his career and led the American League in steals six times. Campaneris homered twice in his debut and famously played all nine positions in a nine-inning game on Sept. 8, 1965.

Eric Chavez
Oakland A's 1998-2010
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

Eric Chavez was a mainstay of the third era of great Oakland teams that won four American League West titles and made five playoff appearances from 2000-06. He won six straight Gold Gloves at third base from 2001-06, hit 20 or more home runs in seven straight seasons from 2000-06 and drove in 100 runs four times. Much like the A's teams of his era, Chavez excelled in the second half of the season and retired as the best player in Oakland history never named to an All-Star Team.

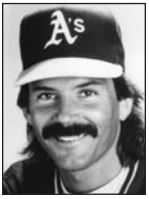

Gordon "Mickey" Cochrane
Philadelphia A's 1925-33
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

One of baseball's greatest catchers, Mickey Cochrane was the backstop for the A's three consecutive American League Pennant winning teams from 1929-31. He was named AL MVP in 1928 and homered twice in the 1930 World Series as the A's won their second straight World Championship. Cochrane had a .321 batting average in nine seasons with the A's and also had a .419 on-base percentage nearly 70 years before it gained mainstream acceptance.

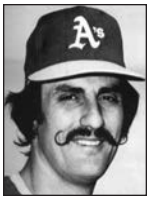

Eddie Collins
Philadelphia A's 1906-14; 27-30
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

The first Athletic to be elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Eddie Collins batted .337 and stole 373 bases in 13 seasons over two stints with the A's. He finished in the top six in Chalmer's Award Voting, a precursor to the MVP, in four straight seasons from 1911-14 and won the award in 1914. He hit .429 in the 1910 World Series to start the A's championship run of three Series titles in four years. The second baseman led the AL in steals in 1910 and runs from 1912-14.

Dennis Eckersley
Oakland A's 1987-95
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

When Dennis Eckersley was traded to the A's in April of 1987, he had a successful 12-year career as a starting pitcher. By the time his nine seasons in Oakland concluded, he redefined the role of closer, saving an Athletics record 320 games. Born in Oakland and raised in Fremont, he was the AL MVP and Cy Young winner in 1992. Eckersley was a four-time All-Star with Oakland and was a member of the A's World Champions in 1989.

Rollie Fingers
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Rollie Fingers made his ML debut with Oakland in 1968 and was used both as a starter and reliever over his first four seasons. He moved to the bullpen full time in 1972, when the A's began their run of three consecutive World Championships. Fingers spent the first nine seasons of his 17-year Hall of Fame career with Oakland. The mustachioed right-hander was a four-time All-Star with the A's and earned 1974 World Series MVP honors.

Charlie Finley
Kansas City A's 1961-67;
Oakland A's 1968-80
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

After purchasing the Kansas City A's following the 1960 season, Charlie Finley moved the club to Oakland in 1968 where the team he assembled would win three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74. He would be remembered as much for his off-field antics and innovations, as he proposed the designated hitter, interleague play and World Series night games. Finley also introduced baseball to Charlie O the mule, Harvey the mechanical rabbit, white cleats, colorful uniforms and more.

Ray Fosse
Oakland A's 1973-75, 1985-2021
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

Ray Fosse blazed a unique trail to A's immortality. It began with three years as a player from 1973-75 and concluded with 37 seasons in the front office, including 36 as a broadcaster. Fosse was a catcher for the A's World Champion teams in 1973 and 1974 and he returned to Oakland in 1985 in a front office role. He moved into the radio booth in 1986 and was a mainstay on A's radio and television broadcasts until passing away following the 2021 season.

Jimmie Foxx
Philadelphia A's 1925-35
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Jimmie Foxx did not finish his senior year of high school as he went to spring training with the Philadelphia A's in 1925 and made his Major League debut later that year at the age of 17. He would go on to hit 302 home runs in 11 seasons as an Athletic, a franchise record that stood for 61 years. Foxx earned back-to-back MVP awards from 1932-33 and a Triple Crown in 1933. He represented the A's in the first three All-Star Games from 1933-35 and was a World Champion in 1929 and 30.

Jason Giambi
Oakland A's 1995-2001, 09
To be inducted 2023

Jason Giambi was a key presence both on and off the field in eight seasons with the A's. He hit .300 with 198 home runs, 715 RBI and a .406 on-base percentage in 1,036 games as an Athletic, earning American League Most Valuable Player honors in 2000 and AL All-Star honors in 2000-01. Giambi concluded his playing time with the A's as the only .300 career hitter in Oakland history and his leadership led to a relaxed clubhouse atmosphere that remained long after his playing days.

Robert "Lefty" Grove
Philadelphia A's 1925-33
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Lefty Grove pitched for nine seasons with the Philadelphia A's, leading the league in strikeouts seven times, ERA five times and wins four times. He won the pitching Triple Crown by leading the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts in back-to-back seasons from 1930-31. Grove capped that streak by going 31-4 with a 2.06 ERA and 175 strikeouts in 1931 to earn American League MVP honors. He was a member of the A's back-to-back World Champions in 1929-30 and was a 1933 All-Star.

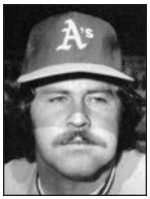

Walter A. Haas, Jr.
Oakland A's 1981-95
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Walter A. Haas, Jr. purchased the A's following the 1980 season and during his 15 years as owner, Oakland won five American League West titles, three AL Pennants and the 1989 World Championship. The A's set franchise records for attendance five times, but Haas will be remembered just as much for his commitment to the community and staying in the background while bright young innovators grew the A's reputation to one of the best in baseball.

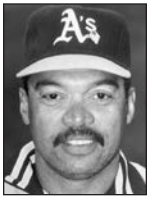

Rickey Henderson
Oakland A's 1979-84, 89-93, 94-95, 98
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Raised in Oakland and drafted by the A's, Rickey Henderson went on to become the greatest player in Oakland A's history and one of the greatest leadoff hitters of all time. He played 14 of his 25 seasons in an Oakland uniform and finished his career in 2003 as the all-time leader in stolen bases (1,406), runs scored (2,295) and walks (2,190). Henderson was a six-time All-Star with the A's, AL MVP in 1990 and a member of the 1989 A's World Champions.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter
Kansas City A's 1965-67; Oakland A's 1968-74
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Jim "Catfish" Hunter was the anchor of the A's teams that won three consecutive World Championships from 1972 to 1974. He had four straight 20-win seasons with Oakland, including a career-high 25 victories in 1974 when he won the AL Cy Young. Hunter was a six-time All-Star with the A's and tossed the first perfect game in Oakland history on May 8, 1968. He pitched three seasons in Kansas City and seven in Oakland and was inducted to the National Hall of Fame in 1987.

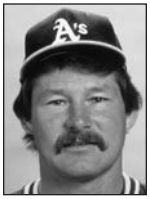

Reggie Jackson
Kansas City A's 1967; Oakland A's 1968-75, 87
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

"Mr. October" was born in 1973 when Reggie Jackson earned World Series MVP honors as the A's won their second of three straight World Championships. He was also named AL MVP that year after leading the league in runs, home runs and RBI. Jackson made his debut with the Kansas City A's in 1967, spent the next eight seasons with Oakland and then concluded his 21-year Hall of Fame career with the A's in 1987. He played in six All-Star Games in an Oakland uniform.

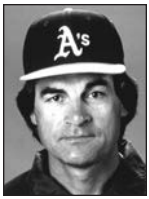

Bob Johnson
Philadelphia A's, 1933-42
To be inducted 2023

Bob Johnson played 10 of his 13 seasons in the majors with the Philadelphia A's from 1933-42 where he was a five-time All-Start. His 997 runs scored were a franchise record until Rickey Henderson broke the mark in 1993. Johnson slugged 20 or more home runs and scored 90 or more runs in each of his first nine seasons and had seven consecutive 100-RBI seasons from 1935-41. He finished his A's career with a .298 average, 252 home runs and 1,040 RBI in 1,459 games.

Carney Lansford
Oakland A's 1983-92
To be inducted 2023

The second in a line of great Oakland third basemen, Carney Lansford was an All-Star in 1988, a World Champion in 1989 and a key cog in the A's teams that won three straight pennants from 1988-90 and an AL West title in 1992. He set an Oakland record with a .336 batting average in 1989 and then went on to hit .455 in the ALCS and .438 in the World Series win over the Giants. Lansford was also a stand-out defensively and led AL third basemen in fielding in 1987, 88 and 90.

Tony La Russa
Oakland A's 1986-95
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Tony La Russa managed the A's for 10 seasons from 1986 to 1995. Under his guidance, the A's won four American League West titles, three consecutive AL Pennants from 1988 to 1990 and the World Championship in 1989. La Russa won 798 games during his tenure with Oakland, including 104 in 1988 when he was named AL Manager of the Year. He would garner the honor again in 1992 and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014.

Keith Lieppman
Oakland A's 1971-present
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

Keith Lieppman grew up in Missouri in the 1960's attending Kansas City A's games and would end up spending over 50 years with the club after it moved to Oakland. He played for nine seasons in the minors from 1971-79, managed for eight from 1980-87 and then served for more than 25 years as Director of Player Development. In his roles, he tutored many of the players that would win 11 American League West titles and make 15 playoff appearances from 1988-2020.

Connie Mack
Philadelphia A's 1901-54
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Connie Mack managed the A's for 50 seasons from 1901-50 and was part-owner of the club for all 54 seasons in Philadelphia. Under his leadership, the A's would win five World Championship and nine American League Pennants. He built two dynasties, winning back-to-back World Series in 1910-11 as well as 1913, and then did it again in 1929-30. Known for managing in a suit, with a derby or bowler in place of a baseball cap, the A's won 3,582 games with Mack at the helm.

Mark McGwire
Oakland A's 1986-97
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Mark McGwire played 12 seasons with Oakland and hit 363 home runs, breaking the franchise record in 1996. He was named to nine American League All-Star teams, including six straight beginning in 1987 when he was named AL Rookie of the Year after hitting 49 home runs. He earned the AL Gold Glove for first basemen in 1990 and hit 52 home runs in 1996. The A's reached the Postseason four times with McGwire, highlighted by a World Championship in 1989.

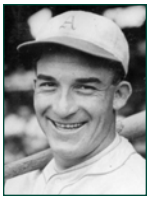

Eddie Plank
Philadelphia A's 1901-14
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Eddie Plank was a member of the original 1901 Philadelphia A's and in 14 seasons as Athletic, he won 284 games, started 459, completed 362, had 59 shutouts and struck out 1,985, all franchise records that still stand. He never led the American League in wins, strikeouts or ERA but was always one of the top pitchers in the game, earning him a spot in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1946. Plank's tenure with the A's included six AL Pennants and three World Championships.

Joe Rudi
Kansas City A's 1967;
Oakland A's 1968-76, 82
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

The A's reached the World Series three straight years from 1972-74 but winning those series required clutch performances, and Joe Rudi delivered. He made one of the greatest catches in World Series history in 1972 against the Reds and then hit .333 with four RBI in both 1973 against the Mets and 1974 against the Dodgers. Rudi won three consecutive Gold Gloves from 1974-76, was a three-time All-Star and finished second in American League MVP balloting in 1972 and 1974.

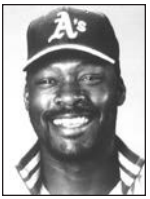

Al Simmons
Philadelphia A's 1924-32; 40-41; 44
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Al Simmons was a major factor in the A's three consecutive American League pennant winning clubs from 1929-31, hitting .346 with 92 home runs and 450 RBI. He led the AL in RBI in 1929 and then won back-to-back batting titles in 1930 and 31. Simmons hit .341 or better in seven consecutive seasons from 1925-31 and had a .356 average in 12 seasons with Philadelphia. He drove in at least 100 runs in each of his first nine seasons with the A's and had at least 200 hits five times.

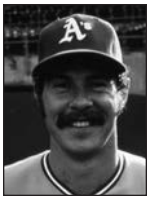

Roy Steele
Oakland A's 1968-2005, 07-08
To be inducted 2023

For four decades, fans were blessed with "the voice of God" at the Coliseum. Roy Steele joined the A's as their public address announcer in 1968, their inaugural season in Oakland, and would miss just five games over the next 38 years before continuing in a part-time role over the next three seasons. He worked six World Series and an All-Star Game, and his booming bartitone introduced players from the Mustache Gang to Billy Ball, the Bash Brothers and Moneyball.

Dave Stewart
Oakland A's 1986-92, 95
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Born in Oakland and a graduate of St. Elizabeth High School, Dave Stewart spent six seasons in the majors with three teams before breaking through with the A's. He joined Oakland in 1986 and would go on to win 20 games in four consecutive seasons from 1987-90. The big-game pitcher went 8-3 with a 2.22 ERA in 14 postseason starts for Oakland, including two wins in the 1989 World Series when he earned MVP honors in the A's sweep of the Giants.

Gene Tenace
Oakland A's 1969-76
To be inducted 2023

Gene Tenace played eight seasons in an Oakland uniform and reached the postseason five times. He began the A's run of three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74 by earning MVP honors in the 1972 World Series against the Reds after hitting four home runs and driving in nine of the A's 16 runs. Tenace was an All-Star in 1975, had four straight 20-homer seasons from 1973-76 and walked 100 or more times in three straight seasons from 1973-75.

Steve Vucinich
Oakland A's 1968-2021
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

The one constant in the A's first 54 years in Oakland was Steve Vucinich. The A's have been erased like a blackboard, rebuilt and then erased again. But Vuc has marked the time. From the first batter in Oakland history, Bert Campaneris, to the most recent acquisitions, Yan Gomes and Josh Harrison, Steve has known them all. He joined the organization as a ballboy in 1968, moved to the visiting clubhouse in 1974 and then returned to the home clubhouse as equipment manager in 1994.

George "Rube" Waddell
Philadelphia A's 1902-07
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

A fan favorite at the turn of the century not only for his skills on the mound but for his eccentricities that earned him the nickname Rube, George Waddell pitched six seasons for the Philadelphia A's from 1902-07. He led the AL in strikeouts in each of those six campaigns and won the pitching Triple Crown in 1905 with a 27-10 record, a 1.48 ERA and 287 strikeouts. Waddell fanned a career-high 349 batters in 1904 and his 24 wins in 1902 led the A's to their first AL Pennant.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP YEARS

1910: Finished with a 102-48 record and outdistanced the New York Highlanders by 14.5 games in the American League standings...defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games to win the first of five World Championships in Philadelphia...102 wins set a new American League record...opened the season in Washington in a game attended by President William Howard Taft, who honored the game by throwing out the first ball, setting a precedent which was followed by each of his successors until the Senators left Washington following the 1971 season...the pitching staff, headlined by Jack Coombs, Chief Bender, Cy Morgan and Eddie Plank, finished with a 1.79 ERA...Coombs emerged as the ace of the pitching staff and finished with a 31-9 record and a 1.30 ERA, including 13 shutouts...compiled a 46-inning scoreless streak during the season...the infield of Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry and Frank Baker would become known as the "$100,000 Infield"...won the first three games of the World Series before the Cubs took game four, 4-3 in 10 innings...Coombs won his third game of the series in Game 5, out-pitching Mordecai Brown to lift the A's to their first world title.

1910 World Champion Philadelphia Athletics

1911 PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS – Front row: Topsy Hartsel, Doc Martin, Dave Danforth, Louis Van Zeldt (mascot), Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry; Row two: Rube Oldring, Bris Lord, Danny Murphy, Manager Connie Mack, Eddie Plank, Jack Lapp, Amos Strunk; Top row: Harry Davis, Frank Baker, Jack Coombs, Harry Krause, Ira Thomas, Chief Bender, Claude Derrick, Cy Morgan, Padding Livingston

1911: Dominated the American League for the second straight season, finishing with a 101-50 record...defeated the New York Giants in six games to capture a second straight world championship... offense was paced by Eddie Collins, Frank Baker, Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Murphy and Bris Lord...Baker captured the American League home run title with 11 round trippers, earning him the nickname "Home Run" Baker...clinched the pennant on Sept. 26 with an 11-5 win over Detroit at Shibe Park, as Baker hit two doubles and two home runs...faced the New York Giants in the World Series in a rematch of the 1905 Fall Classic, won by the Giants...Christy Mathewson and Chief Bender squared-off in Game 1, just as they did in the 1905 Series finale...a run-scoring double by New York's Josh Devore in the seventh inning broke a 1-1 tie as the Giants captured the first game...the A's won Game 2, 3-1, behind the pitching of Eddie Plank and a home run by Baker...A's took a 2-1 lead in the series by winning Game 3, 3-2 in 11 innings at the Polo Grounds...after heavy rains forced postponement of the series for a week, the A's captured Game 4 at Shibe Park, 4-2, as Bender outdueled Mathewson...the Giants staved off elimination by winning Game 5 at the Polo Grounds, 4-3 in 10 innings...the A's routed the Giants, 13-2 in Game 6 to capture their second straight World Series title.

1913: The Athletics posted a 96-57 regular season record and outdistanced Washington by six-and-a-half games to reclaim the American League pennant...defeated the New York Giants in five games to capture their third World Series title in four years... moved into first place in April and stayed atop the AL standings the rest of the way...Jack Coombs, three years removed from a 31-win season, missed the entire campaign with typhoid fever...Chief Bender (21-10), Eddie Plank (18-10), Boardwalk Brown (17-11), Byron "Duke" Houck (14-6) and rookie "Bullet" Joe Bush (14-6) anchored the pitching staff... the "$100,000 Infield" turned in another solid season...Frank Baker hit .336 to go along with an American League-best 12 home runs and 117 RBI...Stuffy McInnis hit .324 with 90 RBI, Collins finished with a .345 average while Barry batted .275...the Athletics and Giants split the first two games of the series before the A's won Games 3, 4 and 5 to capture their third World Series title.

1929: Behind a high-powered offense that featured six .300 hitters and the league's best pitching staff paced by Lefty Grove and George Earnshaw, the A's finished with a 104-46 record and captured the American League pennant by 18 games over the New York Yankees...defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games to win their fourth World Series title...the championship was the culmination of a long journey back to the top of the baseball world for Connie Mack's club...after winning the 1914 pennant, the A's spent the next seven seasons in the AL cellar before finishing seventh in 1922...finished sixth in 1923, fifth in '24, second in '25, third in '26 and second in '27 and '28 before winning the pennant in 1929...Al Simmons leads the American League with 157 RBI and finished second with a .365 batting average...Jimmie Foxx hit .354 with 33 home runs while catcher Mickey Cochrane finished with a .331 average...Bing Miller (.335), Jimmy Dykes (.327) and Mule Haas (.313) also topped the .300 mark for the season... Earnshaw (24-8, 3.29) and Grove (20-6, 2.81) combined for 44 wins.

1930: After posting a 102-52 regular season record, the Athletics successfully defended their World Championship by defeating a hard-nosed St. Louis Cardinals team in six games...offensively, Al Simmons led the AL with a .381 average to go along with 36 home runs...Jimmie Foxx hit .335 and his 37 home runs ranked tied for third in the league behind Babe Ruth (49) and Lou Gehrig (41)...Mickey Cochrane finished the year with a .357 average...Lefty Grove posts a 28-5 record to go along with a 2.54 ERA while George Earnshaw finished with a 22-13 record and a 4.44 ERA....the 1931 Athletics won a franchise record 107 games, but were denied a third straight championship after losing to the St. Louis Cardinals in a seven-game World Series...after finishing second in 1932 and third in 1933, the A's would average 92 losses a season for the next 21 years before relocating to Kansas City for the 1955 season.

1972 World Champion Oakland Athletics

1972: The Swingin' A's finished with a 93-62 regular season record and held off the Chicago White Sox to capture a second straight American League West title... defeated the Detroit Tigers in five games in the American League Championship Series to advance to the World Series, where they defeated the heavily-favored Cincinnati Reds in seven games...the pitching staff, led by Jim "Catfish" Hunter (21-7), Ken Holtzman (19-11), John "Blue Moon" Odom (15-6) and closer Rollie Fingers (11-9, 21 saves), finished second in the American League with a 2.58 ERA...a contract dispute forced Vida Blue, who won both the AL Cy Young Award and league MVP honors a year before, to miss spring training and he did not make his first start until May 28th...led by Mike Epstein (26) and Reggie Jackson (25), the A's led the American League with 134 home runs...Jackson tore a hamstring muscle in the fifth game of the ALCS vs. Detroit and was sidelined for the World Series... Gene Tenace, who hit just .225 with five home runs during the regular season, hits a then-Fall Classic record four home runs to go along with a .348 average to earn World Series MVP honors.

1973: The A's claimed their third straight AL West title with a 94-68 record and dispatched the Baltimore Orioles to win a hard-fought five-game ALCS...defeated the New York Mets in seven games to capture a second straight World Championship...Reggie Jackson led the American League in home runs (32) and RBI (117) and hit .293 to earn AL MVP honors...after hitting just .143 against Baltimore in the ALCS, Jackson earned World Series MVP honors after hitting .310 with three doubles, a triple and a home run against the Mets...third baseman Sal Bando hit .287 with 29 home runs and 98 RBI while playing all 162 games at third base...All-Star shortstop Campy Campaneris reached the 150-hit plateau for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in 10 years...hit .333 vs. Baltimore and set then-ALCS records for total bases (14) and stolen bases (3) and tied an ALCS record with two home runs...hit .290 with six runs, three stolen bases, a triple and home run vs. the Mets in the World Series...Dick Green bounced back from an injury-plagued 1972 campaign to set a then-Oakland record for highest fielding percentage by a second baseman (.988)...Bill North, acquired in a trade with the Cubs in the off-season, emerged as the A's everyday center fielder, but a late season ankle injury forced him to miss both the ALCS and World Series... catcher Ray Fosse was acquired from Cleveland during spring training and established career highs in games played (143), at bats (492), doubles (23) and triples (2)...pitching staff was paced by 20-game winners Catfish Hunter (21-5), Ken Holtzman (21-13) and Vida Blue (20-9)...Hunter posted his third straight 21-win season despite missing a month of the season with an injury... strung together 13-straight victories from June 2 to September 5... Hunter posted two wins over Baltimore in the ALCS, including a 3-0 shutout in Game 5...he kept his record perfect in World Series play, winning Game 6 against the Mets...Holtzman won seven games in the month of May and finished with four shutouts among his 16 complete games...after a slow start, Blue won 11 of his last 13 decisions down the stretch to notch his second 20-win season in just his third full Major League season...Blue tossed a team-high four shutouts during the season...Manager Dick Williams resigned shortly after the season after failing to come to terms on a new contract.

POSTSEASON SERIES YEAR-BY-YEAR RECAP

1905 WORLD SERIES

The A's make their first appearance in the World Series and lose to the New York Giants, four games to one. Three of the losses come against Christy Mathewson who tosses three complete game shutouts. The A's collect just 25 hits in the series for a .161 batting average and score just three runs. Topsy Hartsel paces the A's offense with a .294 batting average and Bris Lord has the only two RBI. The A's use three pitchers in the Series and all toss complete games. Chief Bender makes two starts and has a 1.06 ERA.

The A's lose the first game in Philadelphia, 3-0, as Mathewson tosses a four-hit shutout. Chief Bender returns the favor in the second game of the series as he tosses a four-hit shutout and strikes out nine in a 3-0 A's win at New York. Lord has RBI singles in the third and eighth innings. Mathewson tosses a four-hit shutout in the Giants 9-0 win in Game 3 and Joe McGinnity blanks the A's on five hits in a 1-0 win in Game 4. Eddie Plank allows just four hits in Game 4 and the only run of the game is unearned after a Monte Cross error. Mathewson tossed a six-hit shutout in Game 5 as the Giants clinch the series with a 2-0 win.

1910 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their first World Series and use just two pitchers to defeat the Chicago Cubs, four games to one. Jack Coombs wins three of the games and posts a 3.33 ERA while Chief Bender is 1-1 with a 1.93 ERA. Eddie Collins paces the A's offense with a .429 batting average and four doubles and Frank Baker hits .409. Danny Murphy connects for the only home run of the series and leads the A's with nine RBI. The A's hit .316 and score 35 runs in the five games while the two pitchers combine for a 2.76 ERA and allow 15 runs.

The A's win the first two games in Philadelphia as Bender tosses a three-hitter in Game 1 and strikes out eight in a 4-1 win while Baker has three hits and two RBI. Coombs allows eight hits and nine walks in Game 2 but the Cubs strand 14 in a 9-3 A's win. Eddie Collins has three of the A's 14 hits and all nine Athletics collect at least one hit. The series moves to Chicago for Game 3 and Coombs comes back on one day of rest and defeats the Cubs, 12-5, collecting three hits and three RBI. Harry Davis and Jack Berry add three hits each and Barry and Murphy have three RBI. Bender suffers the A's only loss in Game 4 when the Cubs win 4-3 in 10 innings. The A's have a 3-2 lead entering the ninth but the Cubs score once in the ninth and once in the 10th for the win. The A's wrap up the series with a 7-2 win in Game 5 as Coombs picks up his third win of the series. Collins has three hits and the A's score five times in the eighth to break open a 2-1 game.

1911 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive World Championship as they defeat the New York Giants, four games to two. The A's pitching staff, which consists of Chief Bender, Jack Coombs and Eddie Plank, allows just 13 runs in the series for a 1.29 ERA. Bender goes 2-1 with a 1.04 ERA, Coombs is 1-0 with a 1.35 ERA and Plank is 1-1 with a 1.86 ERA. Frank "Home Run" Baker earns his nickname as he paces the A's offense with a .375 batting average, two home runs and five RBI. Jack Barry hits .368 and the A's offense hits .244 with 27 runs scored in the six games.

The A's lose Game 1 at New York by a 2-1 score as Bender strikes out 11 in eight innings in a complete game effort but loses to Christy Mathewson who tosses a six-hitter. The A's then win each of the next three games, beginning with a 3-1 win at Philadelphia in Game 2. Plank tosses a five-hitter and Baker breaks a 1-1 tie with a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Game 3 lasts 11 innings at New York and the A's are 3-2 winners. Trailing 1-0 entering the ninth inning, Baker homers to tie the game and the A's score two in the 11th for the win. Coombs goes the distance, allowing just three hits in 11 innings. The series is delayed for seven days because of rain but it resumes with a 4-2 A's win in Philadelphia in Game 4. Bender tosses a seven-hitter, Barry has three hits and Eddie Collins, Danny Murphy and Baker have two hits each. The A's lead 3-0 after six innings in Game 5 but the Giants score once in the bottom of the seventh, twice in the ninth and once in the 10th for the win. The A's then wrap up the series with a 13-2 win at Philadelphia, scoring seven times in the seventh inning. Murphy has four hits, Bris Lord adds three and Bender tosses a four-hitter.

1913 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their third World Championship over a four-year span as they defeat the New York Giants, four games to one. The A's use just three pitchers in the series with all going the distance, including Chief Bender, who wins Games 1 and 4, and Eddie Plank, who posts a 1-1 record and a 0.95 ERA. Frank Baker paces the A's offense with a .450 batting average and matches Wally Schang for the team-lead with seven RBI. Eddie Collins hits .421 and steals three bases.

Bender allows 11 hits in Game 1 at New York, but the A's defeat the Giants, 6-4. Collins goes 3 for 3 and scores three runs and Baker is 3 for 4 with three RBI, including a two-run home run. The A's lone loss comes in a Game 2 at Philadelphia, a 3-0 decision in 10 innings. Plank tosses nine shut-out innings before allowing three runs in the top of the 10th, while Christy Mathewson blanks the A's on eight hits. The series returns to Philadelphia for Game 3 and the A's score five times in the first two innings en route to an 8-2 win. Collins has his second three-hit game of the series and drives in three runs and Joe Bush tosses a five-hitter. The A's take a 6-0 lead into the seventh inning of Game 4 at Philadelphia and hold on to win 6-5. Jack Barry has three hits and Schang goes 2 for 2 with four RBI. The A's then clinch the series at New York with a 3-1 win in Game 5 as Plank tosses a two-hitter, allowing just one unearned run in the fifth inning. The A's score early again as Baker has a sacrifice fly in the first inning and a RBI single in the A's two-run third.

1914 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the fourth time in five years but are swept in four games by the Boston Braves. The pitching staff posts a 3.41 ERA in the series, including 1.00 by Eddie Plank The offense is held to a .172 batting average and scores just six runs in the four games. Frank Baker leads the A's with four hits in the series.

The A's drop a 7-1 decision in Game 1 at Philadelphia as Dick Rudolph limits the A's to an unearned run in the second inning. Chief Bender takes the loss, allowing six runs in 5.1 innings. Bill James shuts out the A's 1-0 in Game 2, yielding just two hits. The game is scoreless over the first eight innings before Plank allows a Les Mann RBI single with two outs in the top of the ninth. The series moves to Boston for Game 3, a 5-4 A's loss in 12 innings. The score is tied at 2-2 when Frank Baker delivers a two-run single in the top of the 10th inning. Joe Bush, who goes the distance for the A's, then allows two runs in the bottom of the 10th. Bush takes the loss when his own throwing error on a Herbie Moran sacrifice bunt attempt in the 12th allows the winning run to score. The A's then drop a 3-1 decision in Game 4 as Rudolph again holds the A's to just one run. Starting pitcher Bob Shawkey allows three runs in 5.0 innings for the loss.

1929 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the first time in 15 years and win their fourth World Championship, besting the Chicago Cubs four games to one. The pitching staff posts a 2.40 ERA, including 1.42 by Howard Ehmke. The offense hits .281 and scores 26 runs in the five-game series. Jimmy Dykes hits .421 and Mickey Cochrane adds a .400 batting average. Jimmie Foxx, Mule Haas and Al Simmons all hit two home runs each.

Ehmke strikes out 13 and tosses an eight-hitter in the opener as the A's win 3-1 at Chicago. Foxx breaks a scoreless tie with a solo home run in the seventh inning and the A's have a 3-0 lead before Ehmke allows an unearned run in the bottom of the ninth. In Game 2, Simmons drives in four runs and Foxx is 3 for 5 with three RBI and his second home run in a 9-3 victory. The series moves to Philadelphia for Game 3 when the A's lose their only game of the series, 3-1. George Earnshaw goes the distance and strikes out 10, after tossing 4.2 innings two days earlier. The A's fall behind 8-0 in Game 4 before scoring 10 times in the bottom of the seventh inning to win, 10-8. Haas and Simmons both homer in the inning and Haas and Jimmy Dykes drive in three runs each as the A's send 15 batters to the plate. Philadelphia then clinches the series with a 3-2 win in Game 5. Ehmke allows two runs in 3.2 innings before Rube Walberg comes on to pitch 5.1 innings of scoreless relief. The A's trail 2-0 entering the bottom of the ninth before Haas hits a two-run home run to tie the game. Bing Miller then has a walk-off double to drive in Simmons and win the series.

1930 WORLD SERIES

The Athletics win back-to-back World Series for the second time, defeating St. Louis four games to two. The pitching staff allows 12 runs in the six-game series for a 1.73 ERA. George Earnshaw goes 2-0 with a 0.72 ERA in three starts and Lefty Grove picks up the other two wins, posting a 1.42 ERA in three games, two starts. Offensively, the A's hit just .197 but add six home runs. Al Simmons hits .364 with two home runs and Jimmie Foxx bats .333. Mickey Cochrane adds two home runs and Jimmy Dykes drives in a team-best five runs.

Grove tosses a complete game in Game 1, a 5-2 A's win at Philadelphia. The A's are held to just five hits in the game, including a pair of solo home runs by Simmons and Cochrane. Earnshaw fires a six-hitter in the A's 6-1 win in Game 2. Simmons has two hits and Cochrane homers again, a solo shot in the first inning. The Cardinals win Game 3 in St. Louis as Bill Hallahan shuts out the A's on seven hits in a 5-0 win. Jesse Haines four-hits the A's in a 3-1 loss in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. Earnshaw and Grove then combine on a three-hit shutout in a 2-0 win in Game 5. Foxx hits a two-run home run in the ninth inning to account for all the scoring. The series returned to Philadelphia for Game 6 and the A's win their fifth and final World Championship in Philadelphia with a 7-1 victory. Earnshaw tosses a complete-game five-hitter and Dykes and Simmons both homer.

1931 WORLD SERIES

The A's and Cardinals meet in the World Series for the second consecutive season but the A's lose in seven games. The pitching staff posts a 2.66 ERA, including 1.88 by George Earnshaw and 2.42 by Lefty Grove, who picks up two of the A's three wins. Earnshaw and Grove both start three games each. The offense hits .220 and scores 22 runs in the seven-game series. Jimmie Foxx hits .348 and Al Simmons bats .333 with two of the A's three home runs and eight RBI.

The series opens in St. Louis and the A's take a 1-0 lead with a 6-2 win in Game 1. Grove goes the distance, allowing 12 hits, and Simmons drives in three runs, including a two-run home run in the seventh. Bill Hallahan tosses a three-hit shutout as the A's lose Game 2, 2-0. The A's then fall behind in the series with a 5-2 loss in Game 3 at Philadelphia. Burleigh Grimes no hits the A's over the first seven innings before Bing Miller singles in the eighth. Al Simmons hits a two-run home run in the ninth for the A's only runs. The A's even the series at two games each with a 3-0 win in Game 4. Earnshaw tosses a two-hit shutout and Foxx hits a solo home run in the sixth. St. Louis wins the final game in Philadelphia, 5-1, but the A's win Game 6 at St. Louis, 8-1 to force a seventh game. In the final game, Grimes again shuts down the A's in a 4-2 win. He does not allow a run over the first eight innings before yielding a pinch hit two-run single to Doc Cramer with two outs in the ninth. Max Bishop comes to the plate as the potential winning run but Hallahan relieves Grimes and gets Bishop to fly out to end the series.

1971 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

In their first trip to the ALCS, the Oakland A's ran into the defending World Champion Baltimore Orioles, losing in three straight games. Touted A's pitchers Vida Blue and Jim "Catfish" Hunter ran into problems during the series, leading to the A's downfall. Offensively, the A's got solid performances out of third baseman Sal Bando and right fielder Reggie Jackson, who hit .364 and .333 respectively.

In Game 1, Vida Blue took a 3-1 lead into the bottom of the seventh before allowing a RBI single to Mark Belanger, a RBI double by Curt Motton and a two-run double by Paul Blair. ALCS MVP Mike Cuellar tossed a complete game six-hitter to defeat the A's in Game 2. Jim Hunter also went the distance for the A's, allowing seven hits, including four home runs. In Game 3, Reggie Jackson homered twice and Sal Bando once but that was the A's only scoring as Jim Palmer tossed a complete game seven-hitter.

1972 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Forty-one years after the Philadelphia Athletics won the American League Pennant, the Oakland A's recorded the organization's next pennant with a hard fought three games to two triumph over Detroit. It was the first time in the four-year history of the ALCS that the playoffs had gone more than three games. The A's used superb pitching, scoring just a total of 13 runs in the five games, but allowing only 10. The series also saw a near brawl between Tigers manager Billy Martin and A's shortstop Campy Campaneris, who threw his bat at Tiger hurler Lerrin LaGrow after being hit by a pitch.

In Game 1, the Tigers scored a run in the top of the 11th inning on an Al Kaline home run to take a 2-1 lead but Gonzalo Marquez tied the game in the bottom of the inning on a pinch-hit RBI single. A Kaline throwing error on the play allowed Gene Tenace to score the winning run. ALCS MVP Blue Moon Odom tossed a three-hit shutout in a 5-0 A's win in Game 2. Campaneris had three hits, two runs and two steals but was suspended for the remainder of the playoffs by American League President Joe Cronin after the bat throwing incident. Joe Coleman blanked the A's 3-0 on seven hits in Game 3 and the Tigers won 4-3 in 10 innings in Game 4. The A's scored two runs in the top of the 10th for a 3-1 lead but the Tigers scored three times in the bottom of the 10th, including the game-winning single by Jim Northrup. In Game 5, Vida Blue pitched four innings of shutout relief to pick up the save for Odom. Gene Tenace's two-out RBI single in the fourth inning scored George Hendrick with the winning run.

1972 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their first World Championship in Oakland, the first for the Athletics franchise since 1930, defeating Cincinnati, four games to three. Six of the seven games are decided by one run and Gene Tenace picks up the offensive slack for Reggie Jackson who misses the entire series after pulling a hamstring in the ALCS. Tenace hits .348 with four home runs and nine RBI in the seven games to earn World Series MVP honors.

Tenace homered in his first two at bats of the series, hitting a two-run homer in the second and a solo shot in the fifth to lead the A's to a 3-2 win in Game 1. Catfish Hunter tossed 8 2/3 innings of six-hit, one-run baseball in Game 2 before yielding to Rollie Fingers who got the final out in the A's 2-1 win. Joe Rudi homered and made a spectacular catch off the bat of Denis Menke in the ninth. After a rainout in Oakland, the Reds won Game 3, 1-0 on a combined three-hitter by Jack Billingham and Clay Carroll. In Game 4, the A's trailed 2-1 entering the bottom of the ninth before scoring twice on pinch hit RBI singles by Don Mincher and Angel Mangual to take a 3-1 lead in the series. The Reds scored once in the eighth and once in the ninth off Rollie Fingers to win Game 5, 5-4 and then won 8-1 in Game 6 to even the series at three games each. In Game 7, the score was tied at one after five innings when Tenace delivered a RBI double to give the A's the lead. Sal Bando followed with a RBI double and Rollie Fingers pitched two scoreless innings for the save.

1973 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive American League Pennant, defeating Baltimore three games to two. It was the second consecutive year that the ALCS had gone the maximum five games after having been decided in three games each year previously. In a rematch of the 1971 ALCS, it was pitching again that was the key, this time for the A's. Five of the six A's pitchers had ERAs under 2.00 for the series.

Jim Palmer tossed a five-hit shutout to defeat the A's 6-0 in Game 1 but the A's evened the series with a 6-3 win in Game 2. Sal Bando homered twice off Dave McNally and Campy Campaneris and Joe Rudi also homered for the A's. The A's won Game 3, 2-1 in 11 innings as both Ken Holtzman and Mike Cuellar went the distance. Holtzman allowed just three hits and Cuellar had allowed just three before Campaneris homered to lead off the bottom of the 11th. The A's appeared to have the series locked up in Game 4 as they had a 4-0 lead after six innings. Baltimore then scored four times off Vida Blue in the seventh and once off losing pitcher Rollie Fingers in the eighth for a 5-4 win. ALCS MVP Catfish Hunter then tossed a five-hit shutout in Game 5 as the A's won 3-0 to clinch the series.

1973 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive World Championship, winning Games 6 and 7 to defeat the New York Mets, four games to three. Reggie Jackson was named MVP of the series after hitting .310 with a home run and six RBI and Ken Holtzman was the winning pitcher in two of the A's four victories. The series also featured the "firing" of Mike Andrews by A's owner Charlie Finley after his two 12th-inning errors in Game 2 helped the Mets to a 10-7 win. Andrews did make another appearance in the series, grounding out as a pinch hitter in Game 4.

Holtzman picks up the win in the A's 2-1 victory in Game 1. The A's collect just three hits off Mets starter Jon Matlack but all come in the third inning as Holtzman doubles and scores on an error and Joe Rudi has a RBI single. The Mets score four runs off Rollie Fingers in the 12th inning of Game 2 to defeat the A's 10-7, but only one run was earned as Andrews committed two errors. Game 3 went 11 innings but the A's won 3-2 on a RBI single by Campy Campaneris in the top of the 11th. The A's lost Game 4, 6-1 as Rusty Staub was a perfect 4-for-4 to even the series at two games apiece. Jerry Koosman and Tug McGraw then combined to three-hit the A's in a 2-0 win in Game 5 but the A's came back to win the final two games in Oakland. In Game 6, Reggie Jackson doubled twice, singled and drove in two runs in the A's 3-1 victory. The A's had gone the entire series without a home run before Campaneris hit a two-run home run in the third inning in Game 2. Jackson added a two-run homer later in the inning and Darold Knowles retired Wayne Garrett with runners on first and third in the ninth to save the A's 5-2 win.

1974 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's and Orioles square off in the American League Championship Series for the third time in the last four years and the A's win their third straight American League Pennant, defeating the Orioles three games to one. Pitching was the key as Vida Blue, Ken Holtzman and Blue Moon Odom combined for 21.1 innings of scoreless pitching. Ray Fosse paced the A's offense with a .333 batting average, one home run and three RBI.

The A's lose Game 1 of the series, 6-3 as Paul Blair, Brooks Robinson and Bobby Grich all homer off A's starter Catfish Hunter. Ken Holtzman gets the A's back on track in Game 2 with a five-hit shutout in the A's 5-0 win and Ray Fosse adds three hits and three RBI. Game 3 is a pitchers duel between ALCS MVP Vida Blue and Jim Palmer and Blue comes out on the winning end when Sal Bando hits a solo home run in the fourth inning for the only run of the game. Palmer would allow just three other hits but Blue allowed just two and did not walk a batter. Jim Hunter tosses seven scoreless innings in Game 5 and A's pitchers extend their scoreless streak to 30 innings before Rollie Fingers allows a run in the ninth in the A's 2-1 win. The A's collect just one hit but walk 11 times.

1974 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their third consecutive World Championship to become the first team to win at least three straight since the New York Yankees won five straight, 1949-53. The A's defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers in five games in a series where four of the five games were decided by a 3-2 score. Bert Campaneris hit .353 in the series and Joe Rudi topped the A's with four RBI. World Series MVP Rollie Fingers had a win and two saves while posting a 1.93 ERA and the A's used just five pitchers the entire series.

The A's open the series with a 3-2 win as Rollie Fingers pitched 4.1 innings of relief for the win before Catfish Hunter comes on to strike out Joe Ferguson in the bottom of the ninth with the tying run at first base. The Dodgers even the series with a 3-2 win in Game 2 as Don Sutton shuts out the A's on four hits over the first eight innings. Joe Rudi has a two-run single in the ninth but the A's rally falls short. Hunter starts Game 3 and kept the Dodgers off the board over the first seven innings in a 3-2 win. Ken Holtzman is the winning pitcher in the A's 5-2 win in Game 4 and he also contributes to the A's offense with a solo home run in the third inning. The A's trailed 2-1 entering the bottom of the sixth but score four times, highlighted by Jim Holt's two-run pinch hit single. Rollie Fingers clinches his series MVP honors by pitching two scoreless innings for the save in the A's 3-2 win in Game 5. Joe Rudi homers to lead off the seventh inning to break a 2-2 tie.

1975 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's streak of three consecutive American League Pennants is snapped by Boston as the Red Sox sweep the A's in three games. After posting a team ERA under 3.00 in each of the previous three ALCS wins, the A's team ERA in 1975 ballooned to 4.32. Sal Bando paced the A's offense with a .500 batting average and Reggie Jackson drove in three of the seven runs the A's scored in the series.

Luis Tiant pitched a three-hitter in Boston's 7-1 win in Game 1 at Fenway Park. Three A's errors led to two runs in the first inning but the A's still trailed just 2-0 before Boston scored five in the seventh. The A's took a 3-0 lead in Game 2, highlighted by a Reggie Jackson two-run home run in the first inning but Boston tied the game with three in the fourth off Vida Blue. Rollie Fingers then allowed three runs in four innings as the A's lost 6-3. The series moved to Oakland for Game 3 but the Red Sox built a 4-0 lead in a 5-3 win. The A's started their Game 1 starter, Ken Holtzman, and he allowed four runs in 4 2/3 innings.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's sweep a three-game series from Kansas City in baseball's first ever Division Series, pitting first and second half winners in each division in a season interrupted by a strike. The A's pitching staff allows just two runs in the entire series and the offense is paced by Dwayne Murphy who is 6-for-11 in the three-game series.

Mike Norris tosses a four-hit shutout in Game 1, a 4-0 A's victory at Kansas City. Wayne Gross hit a three-run home run in the fourth inning. The A's get their second consecutive complete game in Game 2 as Steve McCatty pitches a six-hitter in the A's 2-1 win. Tony Armas had a RBI double in the first inning, and after the Royals tied the game in the fifth, Armas added a RBI double in the eighth for the win. The A's complete the sweep with a 4-1 win in Oakland in Game 3. Armas had a RBI single in the first and three Kansas City errors led to a run in the third. After the Royals scored a run in the fourth, Dave McKay homered and Dwayne Murphy had a RBI single in the bottom of the inning.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's are swept by the New York Yankees in three games in their first ALCS appearance in seven years. The A's are outscored 20-4 in the three-game set, compiling a .222 batting average while allowing a 6.84 ERA. Rickey Henderson provides most of the offense as he is 4-for-11 with two doubles, a triple, an RBI and two stolen bases.

The Yankees score three times in the first inning off A's starter Mike Norris in Game 1 en route to a 3-1 victory. Dwayne Murphy drives in Rob Picciolo with the A's lone run in the first inning. The A's take a 3-1 lead in Game 2 before New York scores seven times in the bottom of the fourth inning to take an 8-3 lead. Steve McCatty takes the loss, allowing five runs on six hits in 3 1/3 innings and all five A's pitchers allow at least one run. The Yankees then clinch the series with a 4-0 victory in Game 3 as Dave Righetti, Ron Davis and Rich Gossage combine to blank the A's on five hits.

1988 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's sweep the Boston Red Sox in four games to win their first American League pennant in 14 years. The A's hit .299 in the series and the pitching staff posts a 2.00 ERA while holding the Red Sox to a .206 batting average. Dennis Eckersley was named ALCS MVP after saving all four games and the bullpen recorded three of the wins. Dave Henderson hit .375 and Jose Canseco hit three of the A's seven home runs.

Jose Canseco homers in the fourth inning of Game 1 but Dave Henderson provides the game-winning single in the eighth inning in the A's 2-1 victory. Game 2 is a scoreless tie until the Red Sox score twice in the sixth off Storm Davis but Jose Canseco hit a two-run home run and Mark McGwire added a RBI single in the seventh to give the A's a 3-2 lead. After the Red Sox tie the game, Walt Weiss has the game-winning RBI single in the ninth. The A's outscore the Red Sox 10-6 in Game 3 as Carney Lansford, McGwire and Ron Hassey have three hits each while Hassey drives in three runs. The A's clinch the series with a 4-1 win in Game 4 as Dave Stewart allows one run in seven innings for the win. Jose Canseco homered in the first and Dave Henderson had an RBI single in the third before the A's score two insurance runs in the eighth.

1988 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the first time in 14 years when they also met the Dodgers. After winning the series in five games in 1974, the A's lose to the Dodgers in five games in 1988. The A's hit just .177 in the series and are outscored 21-11 in the five games. Jose Canseco collects just one hit in the series but leads the A's with five RBI. Storm Davis loses twice and posts an 11.25 ERA.

Canseco hits a grand slam in the second inning of Game 1 to give the A's a 4-2 lead before Kirk Gibson hits a pinch-hit, two-out, two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth to lift the Dodgers to a 5-4 win. Orel Hershiser shuts out the A's on three hits in a 6-0 Los Angeles win in Game 2. Davis allows six runs in 3.1 innings and Dave Parker has all three of the A's hits. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and the A's get their only win of the series when Mark McGwire breaks a 1-1 tie with a one-out home run in the bottom of the ninth. The Dodgers score two runs in the first inning of Game 4 and lead the rest of the way in a 4-3 win. Dave Henderson collects four hits. Hershiser clinches World Series MVP honors by tossing a four-hitter in Game 5 to defeat the A's 5-2.

1989 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive American League Pennant by defeating Toronto, four games to one. Rickey Henderson runs away with ALCS MVP honors, batting .400 with eight runs scored, two home runs, five RBI and eight stolen bases in the five game series. Dave Parker also homers twice, Dave Stewart wins both of his starts and Dennis Eckersley saves three of the A's four wins.

The A's win Game 1 by a 7-3 score, but were trailing 3-2 entering the sixth. Mark McGwire ties the game with a solo home run and Henderson breaks up a double play that leads to two more runs. Stewart and Eckersley do not allow a hit after a fourth inning home run by Ernie Whitt. Henderson goes 2-for-2 with two walks, two runs and four steals to lead the A's to a 6-3 win in Game 2 as Mike Moore allows just one unearned run in seven innings for the win. The series moves to Toronto for Game 3 and the Blue Jays record a 7-3 win, scoring six runs off Storm Davis after the A's build a 3-0 lead. Jose Canseco hits a home run into the fifth deck at Skydome to highlight the A's 6-5 win in Game 4. Henderson hits two home runs and also drives in four runs. The A's then clinch the series with a 4-3 win in Game 5, building a 4-0 lead before holding on as the Blue Jays score two in the eighth and three in the ninth. Stewart picks up the win and the A's offense collects just four hits.

1989 WORLD SERIES

Oakland sweeps San Francisco for the A's first World Championship in 15 years in a series halted 12 days after an earthquake struck just prior to Game 3. The A's outscore the Giants 32-14 in the four-game set, hitting nine home runs and batting .301. Dave Stewart earns series MVP honors with two wins and a 1.69 ERA, Mike Moore wins the other two games and Rickey Henderson hits .474.

Stewart tosses a five-hit shutout in Game 1 as the A's win 5-0 in Oakland. The A's score three times in the second and Dave Parker and Walt Weiss hit solo home runs in the third and fourth innings. Moore and the A's bullpen hold the Giants to one run in a 5-1 victory in Game 2. With the score tied 1-1 after three innings, the A's break the game open with a four-run fourth, highlighted by Terry Steinbach's three-run homer. The series moves to San Francisco for Game 3 and the A's outslug the Giants 13-7. Dave Henderson homers twice and Tony Phillips, Jose Canseco and Carney Lansford also homer as the A's tie a series record with five home runs. Moore picks up the win in the A's 9-6 win in Game 4 and also adds a two-run double. Rickey Henderson homers and collects three hits as the A's lead 8-0 entering the bottom of the sixth.

1990 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's sweep Boston in the American League Championship Series for the second time in the last three years and become the first team since the 1976-78 New York Yankees to win three straight pennants. The A's pitching staff held the Red Sox to four runs, one in each game, while the offense hit .299 with no home runs. Dave Stewart picked up two wins and posted a 1.13 ERA to earn ALCS MVP honors and Terry Steinbach (.455), Carney Lansford (.438) and Mike Gallego (.400) all hit .400.

Dave Stewart and Roger Clemens engaged in a pitchers duel in Game 1 and when Clemens left after six innings, the A's trailed 1-0. The A's then scored nine runs off the Sox bullpen, including seven in the ninth, to win 9-1. Rickey Henderson had three RBI, Lansford and Steinbach had three hits each and Stewart allows one run in eight innings. Boston again took a 1-0 lead in Game 2, but the A's scored four unanswered runs this time, tying the game on a Harold Baines RBI single in the fourth and taking the lead on a Baines ground out in the seventh. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and starts in a familiar way as Boston scores a run in the second before the A's score twice in the fourth and sixth innings to win 4-1. The A's finally score first in Game 4, scoring three times in the second highlighted by a two-run double by Mike Gallego. Dave Stewart pitches eight scoreless innings before allowing a run in the ninth and Rick Honeycutt gets the final three outs for the save in the A's 3-1 win.

Results and Boxscores

The A's are swept by Cincinnati in the World Series, the fourth sweep in which the A's were involved in six postseason series from 1988-90. The Reds outscore the A's 22-8, shutting out Oakland in Game 1 and holding the A's to one run in Game 4. The A's hit .207 as a team led by Rickey Henderson (.333). Dave Stewart posts a 2.77 ERA but loses twice.

Former Athletic Jose Rijo shuts out the A's in Game 1 at Cincinnati, 7-0. He combines with Rob Dibble and Randy Myers on a nine-hit shutout as the A's strand 11. Dave Stewart takes the loss, allowing four runs on three hits and four walks in four innings. The A's lose 5-4 in 10 innings in Game 2 as Dennis Eckersley allows three consecutive hits, including the game winning RBI single to Joe Oliver. Jose Canseco's solo home run highlights the A's three-run third which puts Oakland ahead 4-2 but the Reds score one in the fourth and one in the eighth to tie game. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 but the Reds win 8-2, scoring seven times in the third inning. Mike Moore allows six runs in 2 2/3 innings for the loss and Scott Sanderson allows two more. A Harold Baines two-run home run and a Rickey Henderson solo shot account for the A's scoring. Dave Stewart tosses a complete game in Game 4, but the A's lose 2-1 as Jose Rijo and Randy Myers combine on a two-hitter. Carney Lansford has a RBI single in the first. Stewart shuts out the Reds over the first seven innings before Cincinnati scores two in the eighth on a fielder's choice and a Hal Morris sacrifice fly.

1992 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's return to the ALCS for the fourth time in the last five years, but lose for the first time during that stretch as Toronto wins the series, 4-2. The A's hit .251 as a team led by Harold Baines (.440) and Jerry Browne (.400). Ruben Sierra leads Oakland with seven RBI. Dave Stewart has one of the A's two wins and posts a 2.70 ERA.

The A's open the series with a 4-3 win in Game 1 at Toronto as Harold Baines breaks a 3-3 tie with a ninth inning home run. Oakland scores three in the first on home runs by Mark McGwire and Terry Steinbach but Dave Stewart allows single runs in the fifth, sixth and eighth innings. Toronto comes back to win Game 2, 3-1 as David Cone shuts out the A's over the first eight innings before Baines has a RBI single in the ninth. Mike Moore allows three runs in seven innings for the loss. The Blue Jays win the first game in Oakland, 7-5 as Juan Guzman defeats Ron Darling. The A's collect 13 hits but strand 11 runners. Toronto then goes up 3-1 in the series with a 7-6, 11 inning win in Game 4. The A's score five times in the third and lead 6-1 entering the eighth. The Blue Jays score three times in the eighth and then tie the game on a two-run home run by Roberto Alomar off Dennis Eckersley in the ninth. A Pat Borders sacrifice fly off Kelly Downs in the 11th is the game winner. Dave Stewart keeps the A's alive with a complete game seven hitter as Oakland wins Game 5, 6-2. Jerry Browne provides the offense with four hits and two RBI and Ruben Sierra adds three RBI. The series returns to Toronto for Game 6 and the Blue Jays clinch the AL Pennant with a 9-2 win. Mike Moore takes the loss, allowing six runs on seven hits in 2.2 innings.

2000 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's return to postseason play for the first time since 1992 and take the eventual World Champion New York Yankees to five games before losing the series, 3-2. The A's outscore New York 23-19, thanks to an 11-1 win in Game 4. Oakland hits .263 as a team led by Ramon Hernandez (.375). The pitching staff compiles a 3.48 ERA led by Jim Mecir who tossed 5.1 shutout innings and retired 16 of the 17 hitters he faces.

The A's open the series with a 5-3 win in Oakland as Ramon Hernandez has a RBI double in the sixth inning to break a 3-3 tie. Trailing 2-0 after four innings, the A's score three times in the fifth, beginning with a Hernandez RBI single. Gil Heredia allows three runs in six innings for the win. The Yankees come back to win Game 2 as Andy Pettitte and Mariano Rivera combine to shut out the A's on six hits. The series moves to New York for Game 3 and the Yankees win their second straight with a 4-2 victory. Tim Hudson goes the distance for the A's but Orlando Hernandez and Rivera combine to limit the A's to two runs on four hits, including a Terrence Long home run. Facing elimination in Game 4, Barry Zito allows one run in 5 2/3 innings to pick up the victory in the A's 11-1 win. Olmedo Saenz hits a three-run home run in the first inning and Ben Grieve adds a two-run single in the A's three-run sixth. Oakland adds another run in the eighth and four more in the ninth, including a two-run double by Eric Chavez. The series returns to Oakland for Game 5 but the Yankees score six times in the first inning off Gil Heredia for a 7-5 win. The A's score twice in the second, once in the third and two more times in the fourth but are shut out on three hits over the final five innings.

2001 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's face New York in the American League Division Series again and lose to the Yankees in five games for the second straight year. The pitching staff compiles a 2.86 ERA, including 0.93 by Tim Hudson. Johnny Damon leads the A's with a .409 batting average and Terrence Long hits two home runs, both in Game 1.

The A's open the series with a 5-3 win for the second consecutive year as Mark Mulder allows one run on seven hits in 6 2/3 innings for the win. Terrence Long becomes the sixth Athletic to homer twice in a postseason game as he leads off the fourth and eighth innings with home runs. Johnny Damon is 4 for 4 with a walk and steals two bases. Tim Hudson combines with Jason Isringhausen for a 2-0, seven-hit shutout in Game 2. Hudson allows six of the hits in eight innings and Ron Gant homers to start the fourth inning. The series returns to Oakland for Game 3 and Mike Mussina and Mariano Rivera combine to shut out the A's on six hits. Jorge Posada homers with one out in the fifth for the only run and Barry Zito takes the loss, despite allowing one run on two hits and one walk in eight innings. Cory Lidle starts Game 4 and allows two unearned runs in the second, two in the third and two of the Yankees three runs in the fourth in a 9-2 loss. Lidle allows six runs on five hits and three walks in 3 1/3 innings. Miguel Tejada has four hits and Jermaine Dye breaks his leg after fouling off a pitch in the third inning. The series returns to Yankee Stadium for Game 5 and New York completes its comeback with a 5-3 win. RBI singles by Jason and Jeremy Giambi in the first and second innings give the A's a 2-0 lead but New York scores two in the second and unearned runs in the third and fourth off Mulder to take the lead for good. Mulder allows four runs on seven hits in 4 1/3 innings for the loss.

2002 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's reach the postseason for the third consecutive season, facing Minnesota in the ALDS. However, the A's lose in five games for the third straight year. The A's hit .288 in the series, scoring 26 runs in the five games. Scott Hatteberg leads the A's with a .500 batting average and Ray Durham hits two home runs. The A's pitching staff allows 27 runs for a 4.09 ERA.

After winning Game 1 in each of the previous two seasons, the A's drop the opener in 2002, 7-5. The A's take a 5-1 lead after two innings but Tim Hudson allows a run in the third and one of the Twins three runs in the sixth. Ted Lilly allows two runs in two-thirds of an inning for the loss and blown save. The A's win Game 2 9-1 as Eric Chavez hits a three-run home run in the first to give Mark Mulder all the runs he would need. Mulder allows a run on five hits in six innings. The series moves to Minnesota for Game 3 and the A's win 6-3 behind Barry Zito. Ray Durham leads off the game with an inside-the-park home run and Scott Hatteberg follows with a home run to mark the first time in postseason history a team has started a game with back-to-back home runs. The Twins even the series at two with an 11-2 win in Game 4. Miguel Tejada hits a two-run home run in the third inning but Tim Hudson allows two in the bottom of the inning before the Twins score seven unearned runs in the fourth to hand Hudson the loss. Minnesota then wins Game 5, 5-4. The Twins take a 2-0 lead before Ray Durham homers in the bottom of the third. The score remains 2-1 until Billy Koch allows three runs in the ninth. Mark Ellis hits a three-run home run in the bottom of the ninth.

2003 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's reach the postseason for the fourth consecutive season, facing Boston in the ALDS. However, the A's lose in five games for the fourth straight year. The A's hit .213 in the series and outscore the Red Sox 18-17. Eric Byrnes leads the A's with a .462 batting average. The A's pitching staff records a 2.98 ERA and Ted Lilly does not allow a run in 9.0 innings.

The A's win Game 1 in 12 innings as Ramon Hernandez has a bases loaded two-out bunt single in the bottom of the 12th for a 5-4 win. Erubiel Durazo sends the game into extra innings with a two-out RBI single in the bottom of the ninth. Oakland takes a 2-0 lead in the series with a 5-1 win in Game 2. The A's score all five of their runs in the second inning, highlighted by a Hernandez RBI single and an Eric Byrnes two-run double. Barry Zito allows one run on five hits in 7.0 innings and strikes out nine for the win. The series moves to Boston for Game 3 and the Sox win 3-1 in 11 innings on a two-run pinch-hit home run by Trot Nixon. The A's trail 1-0 after five innings before tying the game with a run in the sixth inning, an inning in which Byrnes is tagged out when he fails to touch home and Miguel Tejada is tagged out between third and home when he stops after being obstructed. The A's lose Game 4, 5-4, as starting pitcher Tim Hudson is injured after one inning. The A's lead 4-2 entering the bottom of the sixth but Boston scores a run in the sixth and two more in the eighth off Keith Foulke for the win. Barry Zito has a two-hit shutout after five innings in Game 5 but the Red Sox score four times in the sixth inning off him for a 4-3 win.

2006 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's returned to postseason play for the fifth time in seven years and won a postseason series for the first time since the 1990 ALCS by sweeping Minnesota three games to none in the ALDS. They snap a six-series postseason losing streak and a nine-game losing streak in potential postseason clinching games, which was the longest such streak in Major League history. The A's batted .245 in the series and compiled a 2.33 ERA while outscoring the Twins 16-7. Frank Thomas led the A's with a .500 batting average and two home runs and Marco Scutaro topped the club with six RBI.

The A's win Game 1 in Minnesota, 3-2 as Barry Zito allows just one run on four hits in eight innings for the win. Frank Thomas homers and Marco Scutaro adds a RBI double in the second inning and Zito takes a two-hit shutout into the seventh inning before allowing a home run to Rondell White. Thomas homers again in the ninth inning for an important insurance run as Huston Street allows a run in the bottom of the ninth but gets the save. The A's win Game 2 by a 5-2 score. Oakland scores twice in the fifth inning on a Scutaro RBI double and a Jason Kendall RBI single, but Esteban Loaiza allows back-to-back home runs to Michael Cuddyer and Justin Morneau in the sixth inning. Mark Kotsay then hits a two-run inside-the-park home run in the seventh inning to give the A's the lead for good. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and the A's complete the sweep with an 8-3 win. Scutaro doubles twice and has four RBI and Milton Bradley and Eric Chavez homer. Dan Haren allows two runs in six innings for the win.

2006 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's return to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1992 and the 11th time overall, but are swept in four games by Detroit. The A's hit .221 in the series and score just nine runs in the four games. Milton Bradley drives in five of those runs and homers twice while batting a team leading .500. The A's pitching staff allows 22 runs for a 5.71 ERA.

The A's lose Game 1 in Oakland by a score of 5-1. Barry Zito takes the loss, allowing five runs on seven hits in 3 2/3 innings, but the A's bullpen blanks the Tigers the rest of the way. The A's are limited to a run on eight hits by four Detroit pitchers. Milton Bradley homers from both sides of the plate and is 4-for-5 with four RBI in Game 2 but the A's lose, 8-5. Esteban Loaiza allows seven runs on nine hits in six innings for the loss. The series moves to Detroit for Game 3 and Kenny Rogers and the Tigers bullpen shut out the A's on two hits, 3-0. Jason Kendall singles to start the game and Marco Scutaro has a one-out single in the fifth for the A's only hits. Rich Harden takes the loss, allowing three runs on five hits and five walks in 5 2/3 innings. The Tigers complete the sweep in Game 4 with a 6-3 win. Milton Bradley and Eric Chavez have RBI doubles in the first inning to give the A's a 2-0 lead and Jay Payton adds a solo home run in the fourth inning to make the score 3-0. Dan Haren shuts out Detroit on two hits over the first four innings before allowing two runs in the fifth and one in the sixth. The game remains tied at three entering the bottom of the ninth when Huston Street allows a two-out three-run home run to Magglio Ordonez for the loss.

2012 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's lose to the Detroit Tigers three games to two in their first postseason appearance in six years. It was the A's sixth ALDS appearance in the last 13 years and their fifth loss, with all the losses going the full five games. The A's pitching staff compiled a 2.89 ERA and walked just seven batters in the five-game series, but the offense hit just .194 and scored 11 runs in the five games. Yoenis Céspedes hit safely in all five games and paced the A's offense with a .316 batting average.

The A's lose Game 1 in Detroit, 3-1. Coco Crisp leads off the game with a home run but that is the only run Justin Verlander would allow in seven innings. Jarrod Parker allows a run in the first on a double play, an unearned run in the third and an Alex Avila home run in the fifth. The A's fall behind two games to zero with a 5-4 loss in Game 2. Cliff Pennington breaks a 1-1 tie with a RBI single in the seventh but Sean Doolittle allows two unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh to put Detroit ahead 3-2. The A's then score twice in the eighth when Céspedes scores on a wild pitch and Josh Reddick homers, but the Tigers tie the game in the eighth and win it on a Don Kelly sacrifice fly off Grant Balfour in the ninth. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 where Brett Anderson combines with three A's relievers on a four-hit, 2-0 shutout. Céspedes has a RBI single in the first and Seth Smith homers in the fifth. In Game 4, the A's trail 3-1 entering the bottom of the ninth before scoring three times to send the series to a fifth game. Smith ties the game with a two-run double and scores two outs later on a Crisp RBI single. The A's then lose Game 5 in Oakland 6-0 as Verlander tosses a four-hit shutout. Parker makes his second start of the series and loses for the second time, allowing four runs on seven hits in 6.1 innings.

2013 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's face Detroit in the ALDS for the second consecutive year and lose three games to two for the second consecutive year. Oakland won two of the first three games but then lost two straight to fall to 1-12 in potential clinch games since 2000, including 0-6 in Game 5's. The A's pitching staff compiled a 3.48 ERA and held the Tigers to a .235 batting average, but the offense hit just .217 and struck out 57 times in the five games. Yoenis Céspedes hit safely in all five games and Coco Crisp batted .389.

The A's lose Game 1 in Oakland, 3-2. Bartolo Colón allows three runs in the first inning but those were the only runs he would allow in six innings of work. Max Scherzer blanks the A's on one hit over the first six innings before Céspedes hits a two-run home run in the seventh for the A's only runs of the game. Oakland evens the series at 1-1 when Sonny Gray and Grant Balfour combine on a four-hit, 1-0 shutout in Game 2. Gray tosses eight innings and allows all four of the hits. Justin Verlander tosses seven shutout innings for the Tigers before Stephen Vogt wins the game with a walk-off RBI single off Rick Porcello in the bottom of the ninth. The series moves to Detroit for Game 3, which the A's win, 6-3. Jarrod Parker has a 3-0 lead when he allows three runs in the bottom of the fourth, but the A's take the lead for good when Brandon Moss homers with one out in the fifth. Josh Reddick and Seth Smith also homer in the game. The A's lose Game 4 by an 8-6 margin. Dan Straily had a 3-0 lead before allowing a three-run home run to Jhonny Peralta in the bottom of the fifth. Coco Crisp delivered a RBI single in the seventh to give the A's a 4-3 lead but Sean Doolittle allowed two runs in the bottom of the inning for the blown save. The A's load the bases with no outs in the eighth but are unable to score and the Tigers score three times in the bottom of the eighth to put the game away. The series concludes in Oakland when Verlander and Joaquin Benoit combine on a three-hit shutout in a 3-0 A's loss. Sonny Gray makes his second start of the series and allows three runs in five innings for the loss.

2014 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's travel to Kansas City in their first appearance in the American League Wild Card one-game playoff and lose to the Royals in 12 innings by a score of 9-8. Brandon Moss hits a two-run home run in the first inning and a three-run home run in the A's five-run sixth inning to set an Athletics postseason record with five RBI. The A's take a 7-3 lead into the eighth inning, but the Royals score three times off Jon Lester to pull to within one. Sean Doolittle allows a run in the ninth for the blown save but Alberto Callaspo has a pinch hit RBI single in the 12th to give the A's the lead. The bullpen then allows two runs in the bottom of the 12th, capped by a two-out RBI single by Salvador Pérez. The Royals steal seven bases, including six over the final four innings.

2018 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's face New York in the American League Wild Card game and lose at Yankee Stadium by a score of 7-2. Liam Hendriks is the A's "opener" and allows a two-run home run to Aaron Judge in the bottom of the first inning for the loss. Lou Trivino comes on to pitch the second inning and tosses 3.0 scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and walking one. Shawn Kelley pitches a scoreless fifth to keep the A's close but New York scores four times in the sixth inning off Fernando Rodney and Blake Treinen to put the game away. Khris Davis hits a two-run home run in the eighth to account for the A's scoring. Oakland is held to five hits by five Yankees pitchers, but also draws five walks and leaves nine runners on base.

2019 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's host Tampa Bay in the American League Wild Card game and lose by a score of 5-1. Sean Manaea starts for the A's and allows a home run to Yandy Díaz to start the game. He also surrenders a two-run home run to Avisaíl García in the second inning and a solo home run to Díaz in the third and is relieved by Yusmeiro Petit with no outs in the third inning and the A's trailing 4-0. Oakland scores its lone run in the bottom of the third when Marcus Semien reaches third on an error by third baseman Mike Brosseau and scores on a Ramón Laureano sacrifice fly. Jesús Luzardo pitches 3.0 scoreless innings of relief to keep the A's close but the Rays bullpen blanks the A's on three hits over the final four innings. Jurickson Profar and Robbie Grossman have two hits each but Oakland does not get a runner into scoring position after the fourth inning.

2020 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD SERIES

The A's returned to the postseason for the third consecutive year and defeated the Chicago White Sox two games to one in the best-of-three American League Wild Card series. The series win was the A's first in the postseason since sweeping Minnesota in the 2006 ALDS. Oakland hit just .194 in the series but out-scored the White Sox 12-11 while compiling a 3.67 ERA. Rookie catcher Sean Murphy went 3-for-8 with a home run and two RBI and Jake Diekman pitched in all three games without allowing a run.

Chicago starter Lucas Giolito retired each of the first 18 Oakland batters in Game 1 en route to a 4-1 win, which extended the A's postseason losing streak to an Athletics record-tying six games. Jesús Luzardo started for Oakland and took the loss, allowing three runs on six hits in 3.1 innings. The A's evened the series with a 5-3 victory in Game 2 after Chris Bassitt allowed just one run in seven innings of work for the win. Oakland scored two unearned runs in the first inning and increased their lead to 4-0 when Marcus Semien hit a two-run home run in the second. Closer Liam Hendriks came in with no outs in the eighth and allowed two runs in 1.2 innings before Diekman recorded the final out with the bases loaded in the ninth. The A's then snapped their Major League record nine-game losing streak in winner-take-all postseason games with a 6-4 victory in Game 3. Oakland trailed 3-0 after three innings but then scored four times in the fourth on a two-run home run by Murphy and back-to-back bases loaded walks by Mark Canha and Matt Olson. Chad Pinder added a two-run single in the fifth, Frankie Montas allowed a run in 2.0 innings of relief for the win, and Hendriks struck out the final three batters for the save.

2020 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's faced division rival Houston in their first neutral-site postseason series at Dodger Stadium, but lost the American League Division Series three games to one. Each team hit 12 home runs in the four-game series as the A's set franchise record for home runs hit and home runs allowed in a postseason series. The pitching staff compiled a 7.46 ERA, which was the A's highest in a postseason series of more than one game. Marcus Semien hit .533 and had a .611 on-base percentage, which set an Athletics record for highest on-base percentage in a single postseason series.

The A's took a 3-0 lead in Game 1 on a two-run home run by Khris Davis in the second inning and a solo home run by Sean Murphy in the third but would go on to lose 10-5. Oakland starter Chris Bassitt allowed three runs in the fourth and J.B. Wendelken was charged with the blown save and loss when he surrendered four unearned runs in the fifth. The A's again scored first in Game 2 on a solo home run by Davis but Sean Manaea allowed four runs in 4.1 innings in the A's 5-2 loss. Oakland's lone win came in Game 3 when they tied an Athletics postseason record with five home runs en route to a 9-7 win. The A's took a 4-2 lead into the bottom of the fifth but the Astros scored five times, including twice off Oakland starter Jesús Luzardo. Chad Pinder then hit a three-run home run in the seventh inning and added a sacrifice fly in the eighth, and Liam Hendriks closed out the game with three scoreless innings of relief for the win. For the fourth time in the series, the A's scored first in Game 4 but would go on to lose, 11-6. Ramón Laureano hit a three-run home run in the second and added a solo shot in the fifth, but Houston scored five times in the fourth off Oakland starter Frankie Montas, and twice each in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings.

ALL OR NOTHING

In 2022, the A's had their 17th season with 100 or more losses (2 in Oakland, 4 in Kansas City, 11 in Philadelphia), which is the most in Major League history. It was also the A's 35th last place finish (24 in the American League, 11 in the AL West), which matches the Phillies for the most last place finishes in ML history. However, the A's have 10 seasons with 100 or more wins, a total which is surpassed only by the Yankees (21), and nine World Championships, which trails only the Yankees (27) and Cardinals (11). More recently, over the last 11 seasons (2012-22) the A's have either made the playoffs (6 times) or finished last (4 times) in 10 of the 11 seasons.

DURING THE SPRING

The A's and Giants began playing Spring Training games in the Bay Area in 1983 and have played at least one game in Oakland or San Francisco every year except for 2000, 2021 and 2022. Oakland is 49-43-2 (.532) in those games, which includes 21-16 (.568) in the Coliseum, 16-20-2 (.447) at Oracle Park and 12-7 (.632) at Candlestick Park. The A's have won 17 series, lost 14 and split six. For the last 18 years, the two clubs have played once in Oakland and twice in San Francisco, with the exception of 2014 when the game in Oakland was rained out, 2020 when there was just one game in each city due to Covid-19, and 2021 and 2022 when the two clubs did not play in the Bay Area. There have been four three-game sweeps, with the A's winning all three meetings in 1989 and 2019 and the Giants taking all three in 2011 and 2017.

MINOR LEAGUE FIELD STAFF

JIM EPPARD

Minor League Hitting Coordinator

Originally drafted by the A's in the 13th round of the 1982 draft out of Cal, Jim Eppard rejoined the A's in 2016 as the organization's minor league hitting coordinator and has served in that role ever since. Prior to that, he spent two seasons as assistant hitting coordinator for Los Angeles (AL) after serving as the club's hitting coach from May 15, 2012, through the end of the 2013 season.

Before coaching the big league squad, he served as hitting coach at Triple-A Salt Lake for nine-plus seasons from 2003-12. Prior to joining the Angels organization, he spent nine seasons in the Rockies minor league system as hitting coach for Single-A Central Valley (1994) and Triple-A Colorado Springs (2000-02) and as manager at three different Rockies affiliates from 1995-99. In 1997, Eppard led the Short-Season Portland Rockies to a Northwest League Championship and was named Northwest League Manager of the Year.

As a player, he spent 12 years in pro baseball, including four as a Major Leaguer with the Angels and Blue Jays. He hit .281 in 82 career Major League games and is a lifetime .310 hitter in 1,199 minor league games, winning four minor league batting titles in four different leagues.

Jim lives in Rapid City, S.D., with his wife Lou Ann. They have a daughter, Hannah, who works as a hydrogeologist in Tucson, Ariz.

GIL PATTERSON

Minor League Pitching Coordinator

Gil Patterson returns for his eighth season of his third stint as the A's minor league pitching coordinator after spending the previous three seasons in similar roles with the New York Yankees (2013-15). He previously held this position with the A's in 1996 and from 2008-12. Prior to his second stint with the A's, he spent three years coaching in the Yankees minor league system with the GCL Yankees (2006-07) and Triple-A Columbus (2005).

He has also served as Toronto's bullpen coach in 2001 and its pitching coach from 2002-04, after serving as the Arizona minor league pitching coordinator from 1997-2000. Patterson originally joined the Oakland organization in 1991, coaching in the Arizona Rookie League in Scottsdale. He coached for the A's Single-A affiliate in Madison from 1992-93, Single-A West Michigan in 1994 and the Rookie League Scottsdale A's in 1995 before his first stint as the roving minor league pitching instructor in 1996.

He began his coaching career at Triple-A Columbus and Single-A Oneonta with the New York Yankees organization in 1984. Patterson was the Yankees first selection of the secondary phase of the 1975 June draft. He made his professional debut that year with Single-A Oneonta, leading the New York-Penn League in strikeouts (97). Patterson tossed a no-hitter on June 28, 1976 with Double-A West Haven before being promoted to Triple-A Syracuse. He opened the 1977 season in Syracuse before making his Major League debut with the Yankees at age 21. He appeared in 10 games (six starts) with the eventual World Series champions in 1977 while posting a 1-2 record and 5.45 ERA.

Patterson suffered a torn rotator cuff and spent considerable time on the disabled list in 1978 and 1979. He pitched in the Yankees minor league system in 1980-81 and the San Francisco Giants organization in 1982 before having career-ending Tommy John surgery following Spring Training in 1983. In total, Patterson underwent eight operations during his career.

Patterson makes his offseason home in Odessa, Fla., with his wife, Jan. The couple has four children — Brandy, Raquel, Kyle and G.T.

JUAN NAVARRETE

Minor League Infield Coordinator

Juan Navarrete is in his fourth season as the A's minor league infield coordinator after spending three seasons as the minor league defensive coordinator; two seasons as the minor league defensive, baserunning and bunting coordinator; 12 seasons as minor league roving infield instructor; and two years as minor league roving hitting instructor. Navarrete spent the previous seven seasons as a minor league manager and compiled a 390-338 (.536) record during that span. In his first two seasons as a manager for the A's Arizona Rookie League team (1995-97), he earned manager and co-manager of the year honors after guiding the team to first- and second-place finishes, respectively. Navarrete was promoted to Single-A Modesto in 1998 and took over the managerial duties at Single-A Visalia in 1999, where he guided the Oaks to playoff appearances in two of his three seasons.

A former infielder, Navarrete's playing career spanned 21 years (1970-90). He spent the majority of his career with the Saltillo Saraperos of the Mexican League as a player (1970-71; 78-82) and as a player-manager (1983-85). Navarrete was an eight-time All-Star and a member of Saltillo's 1980 championship squad. He also played six seasons in the Montreal organization (1972-77). Navarrete spent his winters in the Mexican-Pacific Winter League (1972-90) and is among the all-time leaders in various statistical categories. In 1998, Navarrete was inducted into the Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame.

Navarrete makes his home in San Tan Valley, Ariz., with his wife, Maria, and two daughters, Airam and Ana.

STEVE SCARSONE

Arizona Field Coord./Minor League Outfield & Baserunning Coord.

Steve Scarsone enters his fourth season as minor league outfield and baserunning coordinator and enters his second year in the role of Arizona field coordinator after serving as minor league roving infield and baserunning instructor in 2019 and as a traveling instructor from 2017-19. As field coordinator, Scarsone will organize all Arizona-based programs, including the Arizona Complex League and instructs.

Prior to working as a traveling instructor, he served four seasons as the manager of the A's top minor league affiliate, including earning the Pacific Coast League's Manager of the Year Award in 2016. Scarsone previously managed Midland (2011-12), Stockton (2010) and Kane County (2009) in the A's system, as well as Lancaster (2002) and South Bend (2001). He also served as Oakland's interim third base coach for the last half of the 2017 season.

Scarsone played seven seasons as a Major League utility infielder with Philadelphia (1992), Baltimore (1992), San Francisco (1993-96), St. Louis (1997) and Kansas City (1999). He had his best season in 1995, batting .266 with 11 home runs and 29 RBI for the Giants. Scarsone was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 2nd round of the 1986 draft. He played six seasons in the minors before making his Major League debut with the Phillies in 1992.

Scarsone makes his offseason home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Becki. The couple has two children, a daughter, Leah, and son, Ty.

GABRIEL ORTIZ

Minor League Catching Coordinator

Gabriel Ortiz enters his fourth season as minor league catching coordinator and his 17th with the A's organization, which includes five years as a player.

He joined the organization at 20 years old and spent five seasons as a catcher in the A's system. He reached as high as Double-A Midland and was a career .238 hitter with eight homers in 146 games. He has been part of the AZL A's coaching staff as general assignment coach since 2012.

Ortiz resides in Gilbert, Ariz., with his wife, Gerri, and children, Gabriel Jr., Gavin and Genevieve.

CRAIG LEFFERTS

Minor League Assistant Pitching Coordinator

Former Major League pitcher Craig Lefferts enters his first season as minor league assistant pitching coordinator, after spending eight seasons as minor league pitching rehab coordinator. Prior to that, he spent 12 seasons as a pitching coach in Oakland's minor league system with Double-A Midland (2003), Short-Season Vancouver (2004-2010), Single-A Stockton (2011-12), Short-Season Vermont (2013) and Low-A Beloit (2014). Additionally, Lefferts served in the same capacity at Tennessee (2000-02) and Medicine Hat (1999) in the Toronto Blue Jays system.

In his 12-year Major League career, Lefferts compiled a 58-72 record with a 3.43 ERA, which included stints with the Cubs, Padres, Giants, Orioles, Rangers and Angels. A 9th-round selection by the Cubs in 1980, Lefferts made his Major League debut with Chicago in 1983. In 1984, Lefferts posted a career-best 2.13 ERA for the National League West Division champion Padres and tossed 10 scoreless innings in six postseason appearances. He was the winning pitcher in the final two NLCS games against Chicago and earned the save in the Padres only World Series victory against Detroit.

In 1987, Lefferts made 44 appearances for San Francisco, including three scoreless outings in the NLCS against St. Louis. In 1989, he matched Gary Lavelle's team record for saves by a left-handed pitcher with 20 and appeared in five postseason games, making two appearances in the NLCS against Chicago and three against the A's in the World Series. After recording 23 saves in 1991, he was converted to a starter in 1992 and finished 13-9 with a 3.69 ERA in 27 starts for the Padres. Lefferts retired after making 30 appearances for the California Angels during the 1994 season.

Lefferts and his wife, Wendy, reside in Scottsdale, Ariz. They have five children, Brock, Brady, Taylor, Tanner and Lindsay, and four grandchildren, Rowan, Paxton, Jasper and Brooks.

DAN HUBBS

Pitching Development Coach

Dan Hubbs joins the A's as pitching development coach. From 2020-21, he served as director of pitching development and strategies for the Detroit Tigers.

Prior to that, Hubbs coached for 20 years at the Division 1 collegiate level, spending 12 years as an assistant coach at California, one year as associate head coach at USC and seven years as head coach at USC.

Hubbs was drafted by Los Angeles (NL) in the 16th round of the 1993 First-Year Player Draft out of USC. In six minor league seasons with the Dodgers, he was 27-16 with a 3.75 ERA.

He lives in Pasadena, Calif. with his wife, Alison, and two sons, Patrick and Charlie.

RICK RODRIGUEZ

Minor League Pitching Rehab Coordinator

Rick Rodriguez has been promoted to minor league pitching rehab coordinator after spending last season as the assistant pitching rehab coordinator. Prior to that, he spent six seasons as the A's Triple-A pitching coach (2016-21). He also served as the pitching coach for the A's top affiliate from 2000-02, 2004-10 and 2013-14. In 2015, he was pitching coach for Stockton, and he also held roles as Oakland's bullpen coach from 2011-12 and as the manager of Single-A Modesto in 2003.

This is his 39th year in the A's organization, including seven seasons as a player and 29 as a minor league coach. Prior to becoming the pitching coach in Sacramento in 2000, he coached for the Rookie-level Arizona League A's (1992), Short-Season Southern Oregon (1993-94) and Single-A Modesto (1995-99).

Rodriguez was originally selected by Oakland in the second round of the 1981 June draft and spent seven seasons with the A's organization, including two in the majors with Oakland. He went 1-2 with a 6.61 ERA in three starts in 1986 and 1-0 with a 2.96 ERA in 15 relief appearances in 1987. Rodriguez also pitched for Cleveland (1988) and San Francisco (1990) in his big league career, compiling a 3-4 record and 5.73 ERA in 31 games, including eight starts. His playing career concluded in 1991 when he made three appearances for Triple-A Phoenix in the Giants farm system.

An East Bay native, Rodriguez was born in Oakland and graduated from Castro Valley High School in 1978. He attended Chabot Junior College in Hayward and the University of California, Riverside. Rodriguez was named to the Castro Valley Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

Rodriguez currently resides in Folsom, Calif., with his wife, Dana. They have a daughter, Rachel, and son, Ryan.

MISCELLANEOUS

OAKLAND COLISEUM

The Oakland Coliseum has served as the home for the A's since the franchise moved to Oakland in 1968.

The A's have used the facility to their advantage over the years, posting a 1082-812 (.571) home record over the last 24 seasons, which is sixth best in the majors. In 2003, the A's set an Oakland record for home wins as they finished with a 57-24 (.704) record in the Coliseum, marking the most home wins in franchise history since 1931 when the Philadelphia Athletics went 60-15 at home. In addition, two of the A's World Championships have been clinched on the Coliseum's turf.

The facility is conveniently located adjacent to I-880 with two exits (Hegenberger Road/66th Avenue) leading directly to the complex. Along with the Oakland Arena, which is located adjacently, it is the only major entertainment facility with a dedicated stop on the Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) system. The Oakland International Airport is less than a two-mile drive from the Coliseum with shuttle service to several local hotels and restaurants.

In October of 1995, the Coliseum began a one-year, $120 million renovation project that added 22,000 new seats, 90 luxury suites, two private clubs and two state-of-the-art scoreboards.

As part of the team's new 10-year lease arrangement prior to the 2015 season, an additional $10 million in improvements was added, including the installation of new High Definition Video boards and the addition of the Treehouse and the A's Stomping Ground.

The first crowd filled the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on Sept. 8, 1966, when the AFL's Oakland Raiders played the Kansas City Chiefs. The adjacent arena celebrated its grand opening on Nov. 9, 1966, when the Oakland Seals met the San Diego Gulls in hockey. The first A's game came on April 17, 1968 against the Baltimore Orioles.

In the ensuing 55 years, the facility has hosted every conceivable event in the entertainment industry, including concerts, conventions and other large gatherings. Audiences numbering over 100 million have made the Coliseum and Arena the premier entertainment facilities in Northern California.

ATHLETICS ON THE AIR

KEN KORACH

Radio Play-by-Play

The 2023 season marks Ken Korach's 32nd year in the American League, his 28th with the A's and his 18th as the team's lead radio announcer. In the long history of the A's in Oakland, he has spent the most time doing play-by-play on radio for the A's.

Korach's first MLB job was in Chicago, where he spent four years broadcasting mostly weekend games for the White Sox. He also spent six full seasons in the minor leagues, beginning in 1984 with the Redwood Pioneers of the California League. He also worked in the Pacific Coast League in Phoenix (1986-87) and Las Vegas (1989-91).

Korach was hired in 1985 to broadcast San Jose State football on KCBS Radio and he spent 22 years doing football and basketball on radio and television for Sonoma State, San Jose State and UNLV.

He is the author of Holy Toledo, Lessons from Bill King, Renaissance Man of the Mic, which was published by Wellstone Books in 2013, spent over a month as the number one best-selling baseball book on Amazon.com, and is Ken's homage to the 2017 Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Ken's second book, If These Walls Could Talk: Oakland A's, cowritten by then-San Francisco Chronicle A's beat writer Susan Slusser, was released in the spring of 2019 by Triumph Books.

Korach was inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame in September of 2019 and honored as the 2013 California Sportscaster of the Year and the 2001 Nevada Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association. He was inducted in 2017 into the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame of Northern California and in 2003 into the Nevada Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

In partnership with the Oakland A's community Fund, Korach made a joint contribution of $15,000 to support the Oakland Athletic League's mission to grow diamond sports with elementary and middle school OUSD students.

Korach is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara and he and his wife Denise are parents of their daughter, Emilee. They make their home in Henderson, Nev. and Pleasanton, Calif.

VINCE COTRONEO

Radio Play-by-Play

Vince Cotroneo begins his 18th season in the A's radio booth, where he again will work with broadcast partner Ken Korach in continuing the team's tradition of broadcasting excellence.

Prior to joining the A's, Cotroneo spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an announcer on the Texas Rangers broadcasts, where he partnered with Eric Nadel on the Rangers Radio Network. He also worked over 20 games on the television side during the 2002 season. Cotroneo joined the Rangers broadcast team in 1998 after spending seven seasons (1991-97) with the Houston Astros.

A 33-year broadcasting veteran, Cotroneo began his career with the Single-A Lynchburg Mets in 1984. He spent the next three seasons with the Double-A El Paso Diablos in the Milwaukee system before moving on to the Triple-A Iowa Cubs for the 1988 season. In his only season with Iowa, he was selected as the National Association's Minor League Announcer of the Year. Cotroneo joined the Astros organization the following season and was the radio voice of the Tucson Toros for two seasons (1989-90) before landing his first Major League job with the Astros in 1991.

A 1983 graduate of the University of Central Florida, Cotroneo and his wife, Veronica, have three children, Dominic, Olivia and Sophia.

JOHNNY DOSKOW

Radio Play-by-Play

Johnny Doskow begins his first season in the A's radio booth in 2023, where he will broadcast 65+ games as well as contribute to pregame, postgame, and A's Cast Live.

Doskow has been the voice of the Sacramento River Cats since 2001, where he has been behind the microphone for three Triple-A Championships and five Pacific Coast League Championships. Before joining Sacramento, Doskow was the radio broadcaster for the Fresno Grizzlies (1998-2000), High Desert Mavericks (1996-1998), and Cedar Rapids Kernels (1993-1995).

Johnny made his MLB debut in 2012, joining the A's radio booth for a brief stint while Ken Korach was recovering from surgery. He also made an appearance in the San Francisco Giants' radio broadcast along with Dave Flemming on September 19, 2022.

In 2020, Doskow published his book, Goodnight Em: Baseball and Life Through Haiku. The title is a nod to his signature sign-off, as he wishes a goodnight to his daughter, Emily, at the end of each River Cats broadcast.

He graduated from the University of La Verne with a bachelor's degree in Communications, Radio and Television. A native of North Tarrytown, NY, Doskow resides in El Dorado Hills, Calif., with his wife, Deb, and daughter, Emily.

GLEN KUIPER

Television Play-by-Play

Glen Kuiper begins his 20th season in the A's television booth as the club's lead play-by-play voice.

Kuiper has covered the Bay Area baseball scene for NBC Sports California since 1992, serving as pre-game host and fill-in play-by-play announcer for both A's and Giants telecasts. He has also worked on Comcast SportsNet's Golden State Warriors and San Jose Sharks telecasts, along with numerous collegiate assignments and sideline reporting duties for select National Football League games on Fox. Kuiper has won 13 Northern California Emmy Awards for his coverage of Bay Area sports teams.

Glen is the youngest brother in a talented broadcasting family. His oldest brother, Duane, is a longtime member of the San Francisco Giants announcing team while older brother, Jeff, produces the Giants NBC Sports Bay Area telecasts.

Kuiper graduated from San Francisco State University with a bachelor's degree in broadcasting. He also attended the University of New Orleans and spent three years in the minor leagues. A native of Racine, Wis., Kuiper resides in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Amanda and two children, Jack and Annette.

DALLAS BRADEN

Television Analyst

Dallas Braden enters his sixth season as an A's television color commentator after spending 2017 as a pre- and postgame host for NBC Sports California.

Braden was Oakland's 24th round pick in 2004 and made his Major League debut with the A's in 2007. In his five-year playing career—all with Oakland—he compiled a 26-36 record to go along with a 4.16 career ERA. The highlight of Braden's playing career came on May 9, 2010, when he threw the 19th perfect game in MLB history against the Tampa Bay Rays on Mother's Day.

After retiring in 2014, Braden joined ESPN as a studio and color analyst. He left ESPN in 2017 to join NBC Sports California.

A native of Stockton, Calif., Braden resides in Simi Valley, Calif., with his wife, Meg, their daughters Kinslee, Marlee, Wylee, and his grandmother Peggy.

CHRIS TOWNSEND

Host and Senior Broadcast Producer

Chris Townsend enters his fifth season as Host and Senior Broadcast Producer for A's Cast. In this role, he is responsible for creating and delivering multimedia A's content across multiple platforms.

Townsend also hosts A's Cast Live, the A's pre- and postgame shows and is an in-studio host during the broadcasts. Fans will continue to be able to engage with him during the games on his social media channels.

Townsend has worked in numerous capacities covering the A's, from prior roles in both TV and radio. He joins the A's after working for a number of local sports companies, including Oakland Raiders, 95.7 The Game, KNBR 680 and CSN Sports Bay Area. Chris has lived in the Bay Area for more than 25 years after attending San Jose State and playing baseball for the Spartans.

His grandfather Bob Elliott was the first third baseman in baseball history to win the MVP in 1947. Elliott was a seven-time All-Star during his 15 year career. He also was the manager of the Kansas City Athletics in 1960.

AMAURY PI-GONZÁLEZ

Radio Play-by-Play (Spanish)

Amaury Pi-González, a pioneer in establishing Spanish baseball radio play-by-play in the Bay Area, serves as the "Voice of the A's" for Spanish broadcasts. This will be his 30th season doing A's broadcasts, having filled that role from 1978-93, 2009-10 and again the past 11 seasons.

Well-known and respected in both English and Spanish media circles, Pi-González enters his 46th season in Major League Baseball in 2022. He began his career in 1977 with the Athletics and has also broadcast for the San Francisco Giants, Seattle Mariners, and Los Angeles Angels. He was the Spanish play-by-play on Television for the Los Angeles Angels on Fox Deportes LA from 2010-17. Amaury also produces and hosts "Béisbol en la Bahia" for KIQI 1010 AM.

During his tenure, Pi-González has called the 1986 World Series for CBS Hispanic Network, the 1988, 1989 and 1990 Series for the A's, and the 2002 Series for the Giants. The Fremont, Calif., resident previously served five years as sports anchor for Telemundo TV48 in San Jose and was the Spanish voice for the NBA's Golden State Warriors (1992-98) and Los Angeles Clippers. In addition, he was the English voice for the Caribbean World Series for Fox Sports International in 2001 and 2002. Most recently, he called the A's playoff runs from the 2018-20 seasons for A's radio and provided color commentary for a San Jose Sharks game via their Spanish Radio/TV SAP audio formats for the past three years (2018-20). He is a regular contributor to SportsRadioService.com, including a weekly podcast.

Born in Cuba, Amaury was inducted into the Cuban Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum in 2004. He was inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame in 2009 and is a cofounder and vice president of the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum and Hall of Fame, a Bay Area based non-profit. He was named to the New York City Advisory Board of the American Sportscasters Association in 2016 and remains on the board today. Pi-

Gonzalez also called the victory parades for the Giants in 2010, 2012 and 2014, for the Warriors in 2015, and Sharks games in the Stanley Cup Finals in 2016 for Telemundo.

MANOLO HERNÁNDEZ-DOUEN

Radio Analyst and Play-by-Play (Spanish)

Manolo Hernández-Douen is in his 15th season as the Athletics analyst and play-by-play announcer for Spanish broadcasts. He has over 50 years of experience in journalism and has covered a variety of sports during that span.

A graduate of Universidad Católica Andrés Bello in his native Caracas, Hernández-Douen has covered the Olympic and Pan American Games, world championship boxing matches and winter league baseball, including the Caribbean Series. He was Venezuela's Sportswriter of the Year in 1979 and for five seasons was the basketball radio analyst for the Caracas Liga Especial de Baloncesto team.

Since moving to California in 1982, he has covered the NBA and Major League Baseball for several of the highest circulation Spanish newspapers in the United States including La Opinión in Los Angeles.

Most recently, he was the Sports Editor for El Nuevo Herald in Miami from 2000 to 2007, covered feature stories for lasmayores.com (MLB in Spanish) from 2008-17. He's beisbolporgotas.com's Editor/Writer and is in charge of his own sports podcast, AcciónXGotas.

A proud father of two, Franklin and Cristina, and Kayla's, Khloe's and Liliana's grandfather, Manolo resides in San Leandro.

JOSE LUIS ORELLANA

Radio Analyst (Spanish)

Jose Luis Orellana is in his 12th season serving as the Athletics Spanish radio engineer and broadcaster. He has more than 39 years of experience in radio covering multiple sports.

A graduate of the University of El Salvador, Orellana began his career in 1980 covering first division soccer in his native El Salvador. During his career, he was a correspondent for "Punto Deportivo" and has covered events including the 1986 World Cup in Mexico, 1994 World Cup in the United States and the 1998 World Cup in France, as well as the 2002 Central America Student Games in El Salvador.

Orellana has two children, Jose and Carlos Alberto, and resides in Antioch.

OAKLAND A'S IN THE COMMUNITY

The Oakland A's are proud of their long-standing tradition in Oakland and will continue to deliver experiences that enhance, connect and enrich our community. The Club is committed to meeting the social, cultural and educational needs of our area and accomplishes this work through the team's community engagement initiatives and its charitable arm, the Oakland A's Community Fund.

The Oakland A's Community Fund is committed to the health, vitality and happiness of our community by enriching Oakland and the East Bay through sport and civic service.

YOUTH EDUCATION

The A's education initiatives focus on literacy, education and scholarships.

- Home Run Readers – Home Run Readers, presented by Ross Dress for Less, is a literacy program designed to help young students develop a lifelong love for reading by offering monthly incentives when students hit their reading goals. In 2022, more than 12,000 students and over 430 classrooms participated in the program.
- Math Hits – A's Math Hits, presented by PwC, is a free board game and eight-session curriculum designed to engage fourth- through sixth-grade students by combining baseball and math. Math Hits allows participating students to compete in "baseball" games on the game board, all while developing fundamental math and social-emotional skills.
- The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team – The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team (BAASST) is a partnership established in 1996 by the Oakland Athletics, Golden State Warriors, San Francisco 49ers, San Francisco Giants, San Jose Earthquakes, and San Jose Sharks. Through this program, the Oakland A's annually select one student attending an Alameda County public high school to receive a $5,000 scholarship.
- Bill King Scholarship – Established in memory of long-time, legendary Bay Area sports announcer Bill King, the Oakland A's award one $5,000 scholarship each season to an undergraduate or graduate student that is majoring in journalism or broadcasting.

YOUTH BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL

The A's are committed to providing youth the opportunity to learn and grow their love of baseball and softball through:

- Future A's – Future A's, presented by Kaiser Permanente, is the Club's youth baseball and softball initiative. In addition to providing complimentary jerseys and hats to local youth baseball and softball leagues, the A's offer teams benefits and support, including grants, coaches clinics, virtual training and other activities. The A's distributed more than 21,000 uniforms and hats to local leagues in the beginning of 2023.
- Diamond Days – Diamond Days, presented by Bank of America, is a free, family-friendly day full of baseball activities, including skills stations, special guest appearances, and giveaways. Local youth of all age groups are encouraged to participate
- Major League Mindset – Major League Mindset, presented by Chevron, is a speaker series with six total events held throughout the season. This unique program provides local underserved youth the opportunity to meet with a Major League Baseball player and learn what it takes to develop the character needed to succeed at a "Major League level" on and off the field. Participants will also get to hear from members of the A's front office on their career paths in sports.

COMMUNITY TOOL BOX

The Oakland A's Community Fund is proud to support thousands of organizations annually through various donation programs. Please review our available programs below, and stay tuned for additional donation request opportunities.

In 2022, the A's supported the Bay Area through:

- $100,000 donated to local nonprofit organizations through the annual grant program sponsored by Delta Dental.
- $100,000 donated via the social justice grants program, which is awarded to organizations committed to uplifting the Bay Area through systemic change, advocacy, policy reform and innovative direct service programs to underserved communities.
- $120,000 donated to local organizations for the A's Community Fund's annual Week of Giving.
- More than 50,000 complimentary tickets donated
- $356,000 value of in-kind donations
